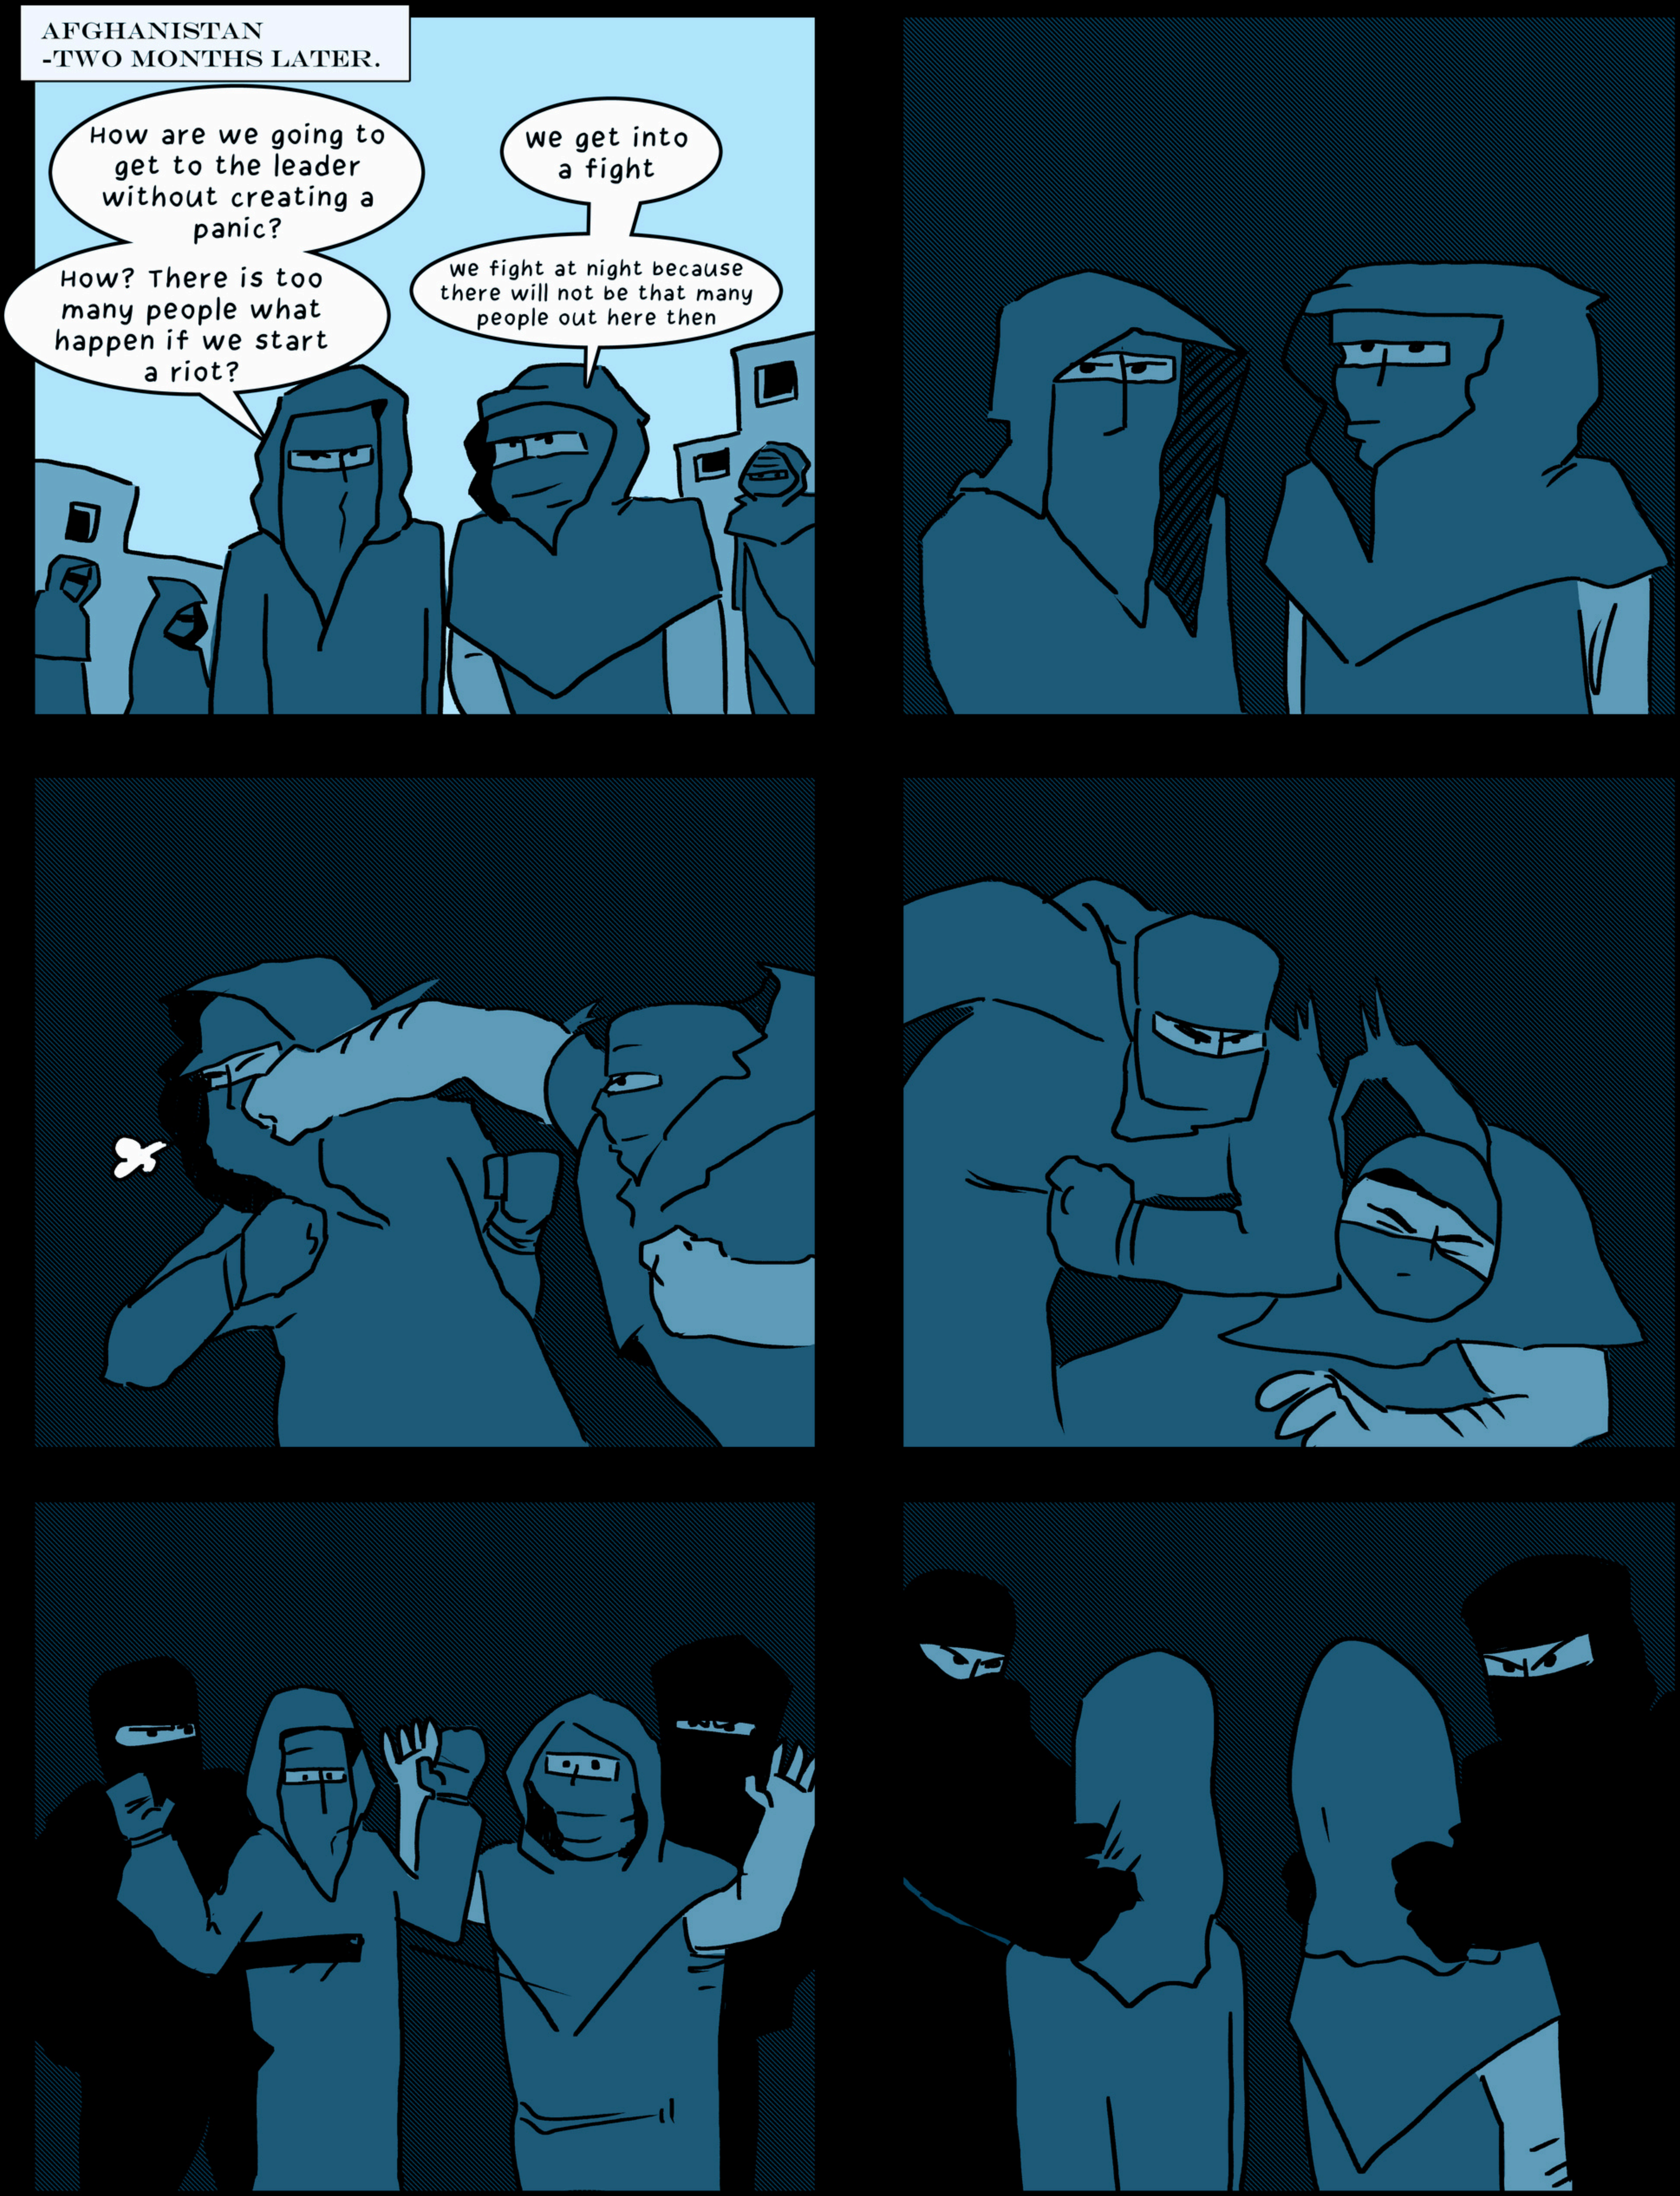
I have a mission for you and Kevin. the U.S. president needs us to take out the leader of an Isis group. But we only have 2 months to come up with an excuse to tell our parents.
I'll tell my mom I have an intern job and I am taking a trip for it.
I'll tell my mom I am a cheerleading coach and I am taking them to Texas for a competition.
well now that that's settled, we will be going to Afghanistan for 3 months to kill this guy.



AFGHANISTAN -TWO MONTHS LATER.
How are we going to get to the leader without creating a panic?
we get into a fight
How? There is too many people what happen if we start a riot?
we fight at night because there will not be that many people out here then

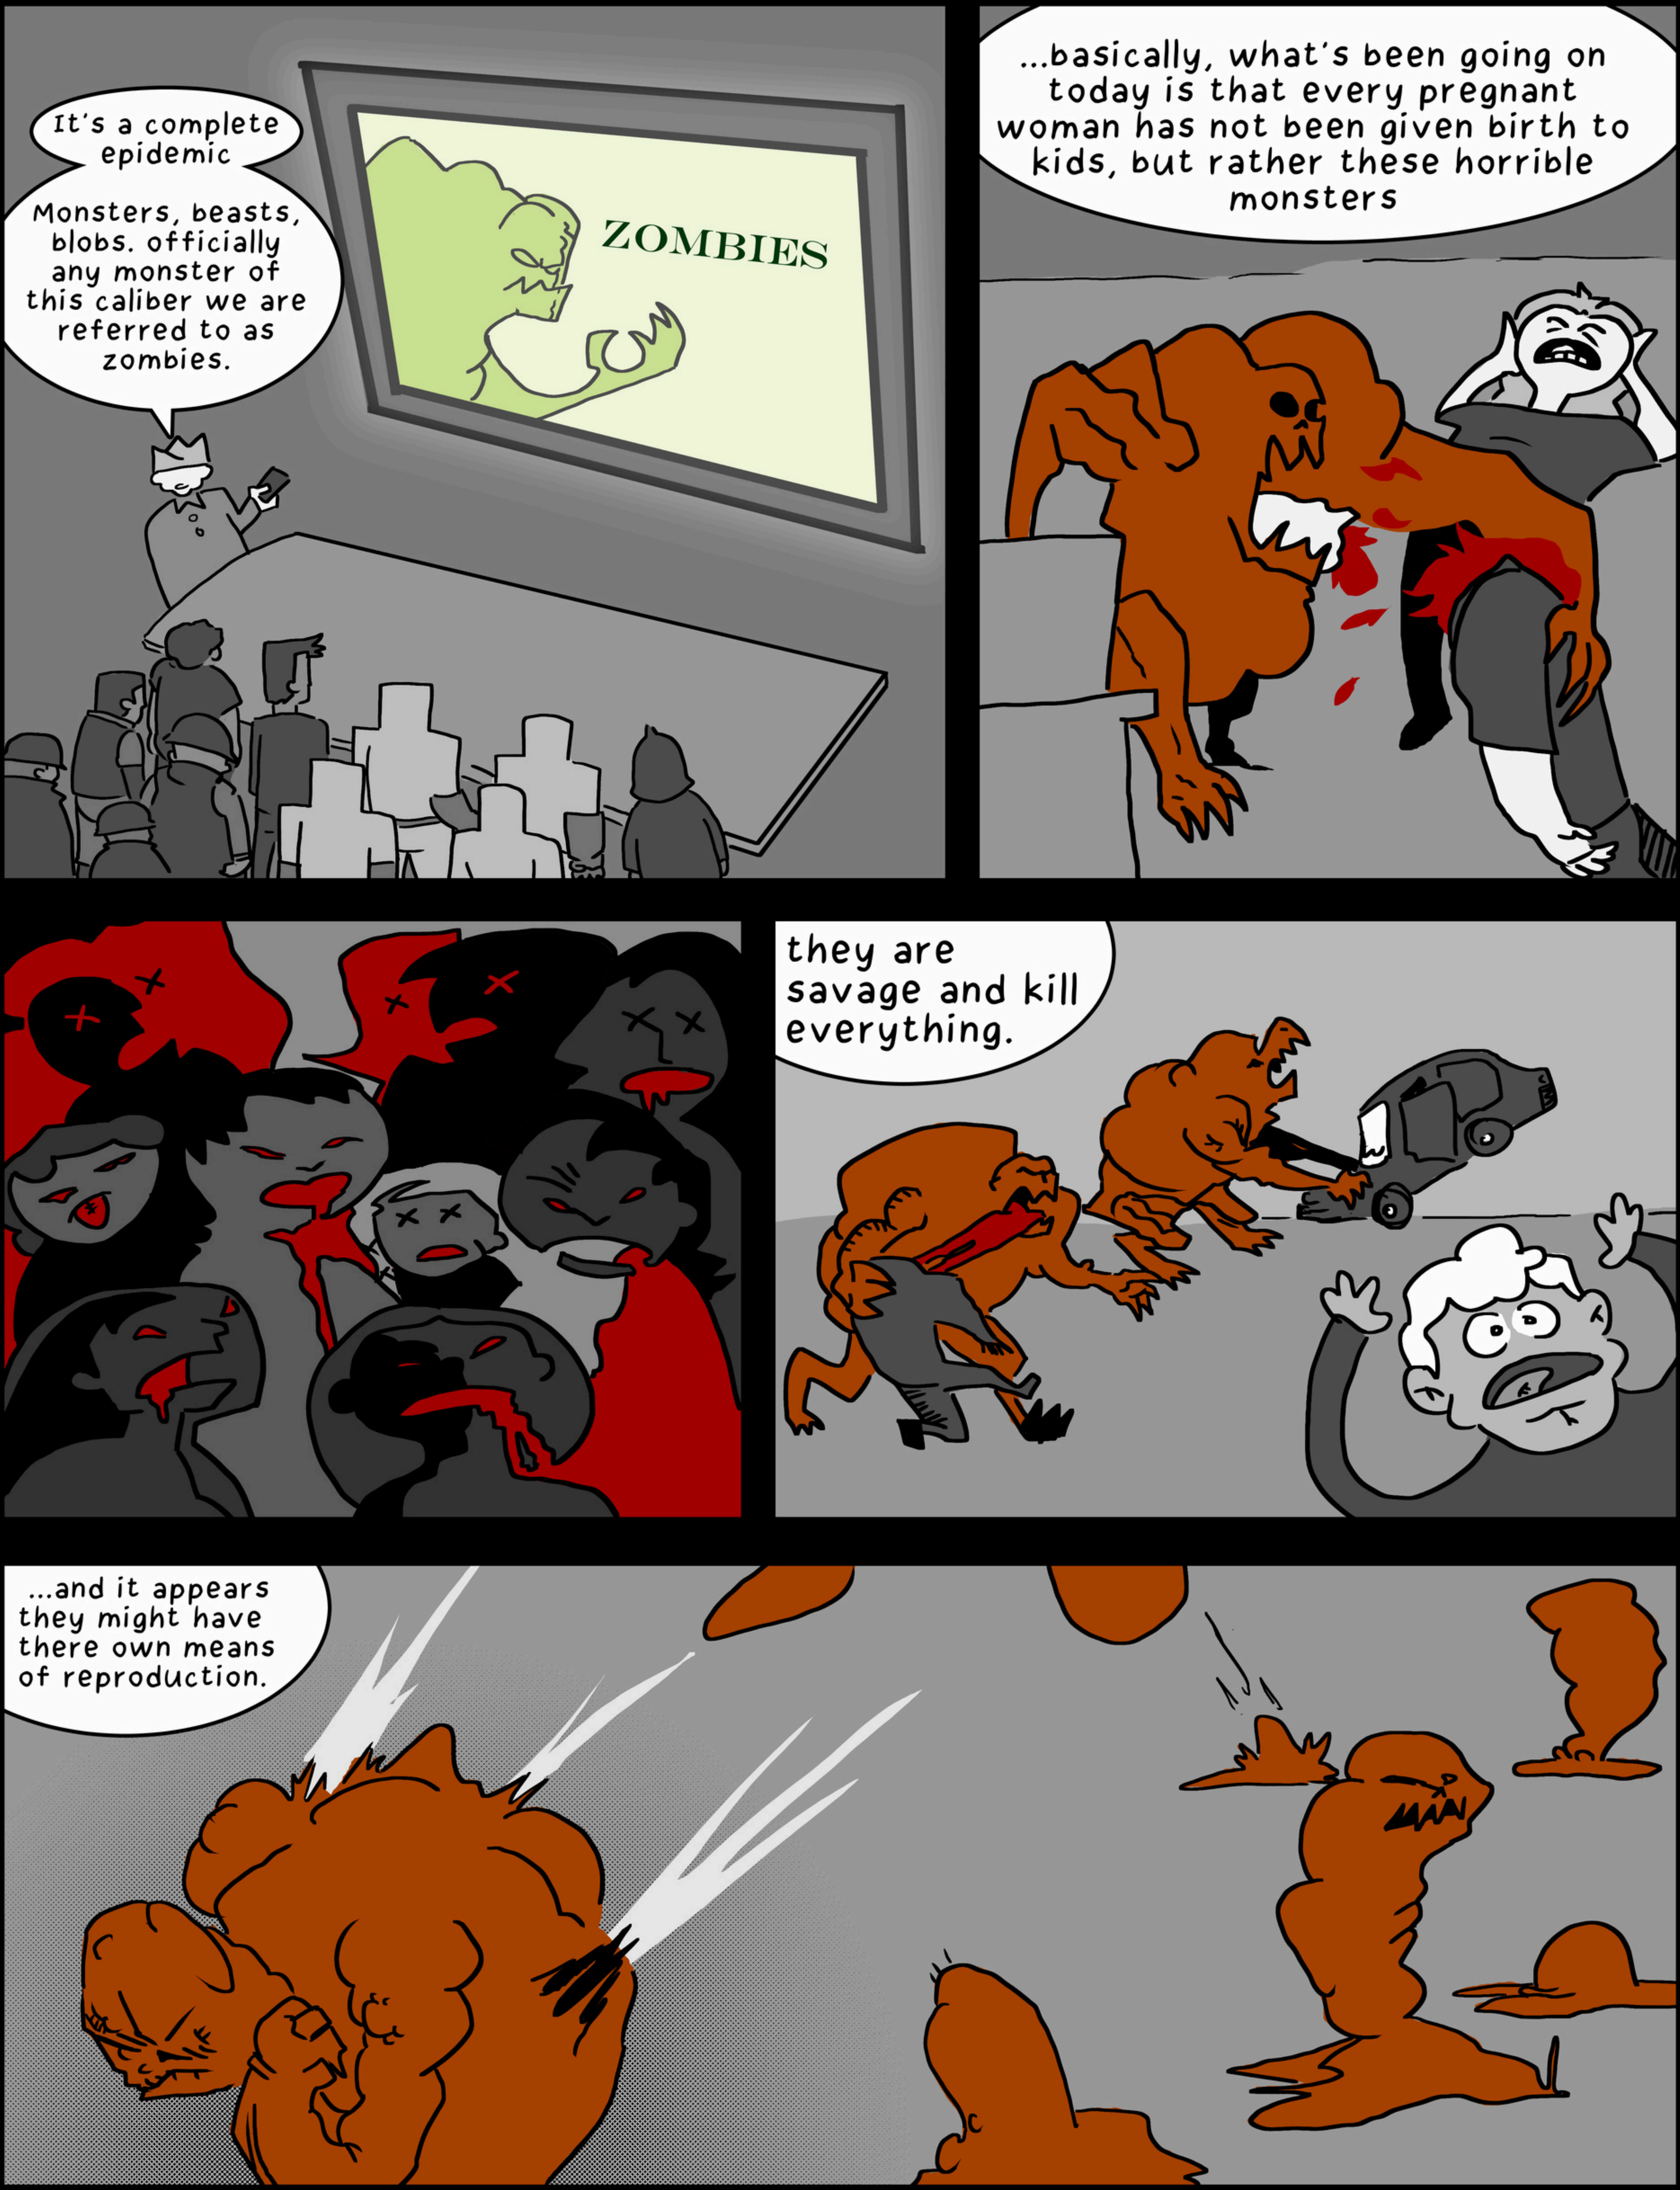
What's our first mission?



It's a complete epidemic
Monsters, beasts, blobs. officially any monster of this caliber we are referred to as zombies.
ZOMBIES
...basically, what's been going on today is that every pregnant woman has not been given birth to kids, but rather these horrible monsters they are savage and kill everything.
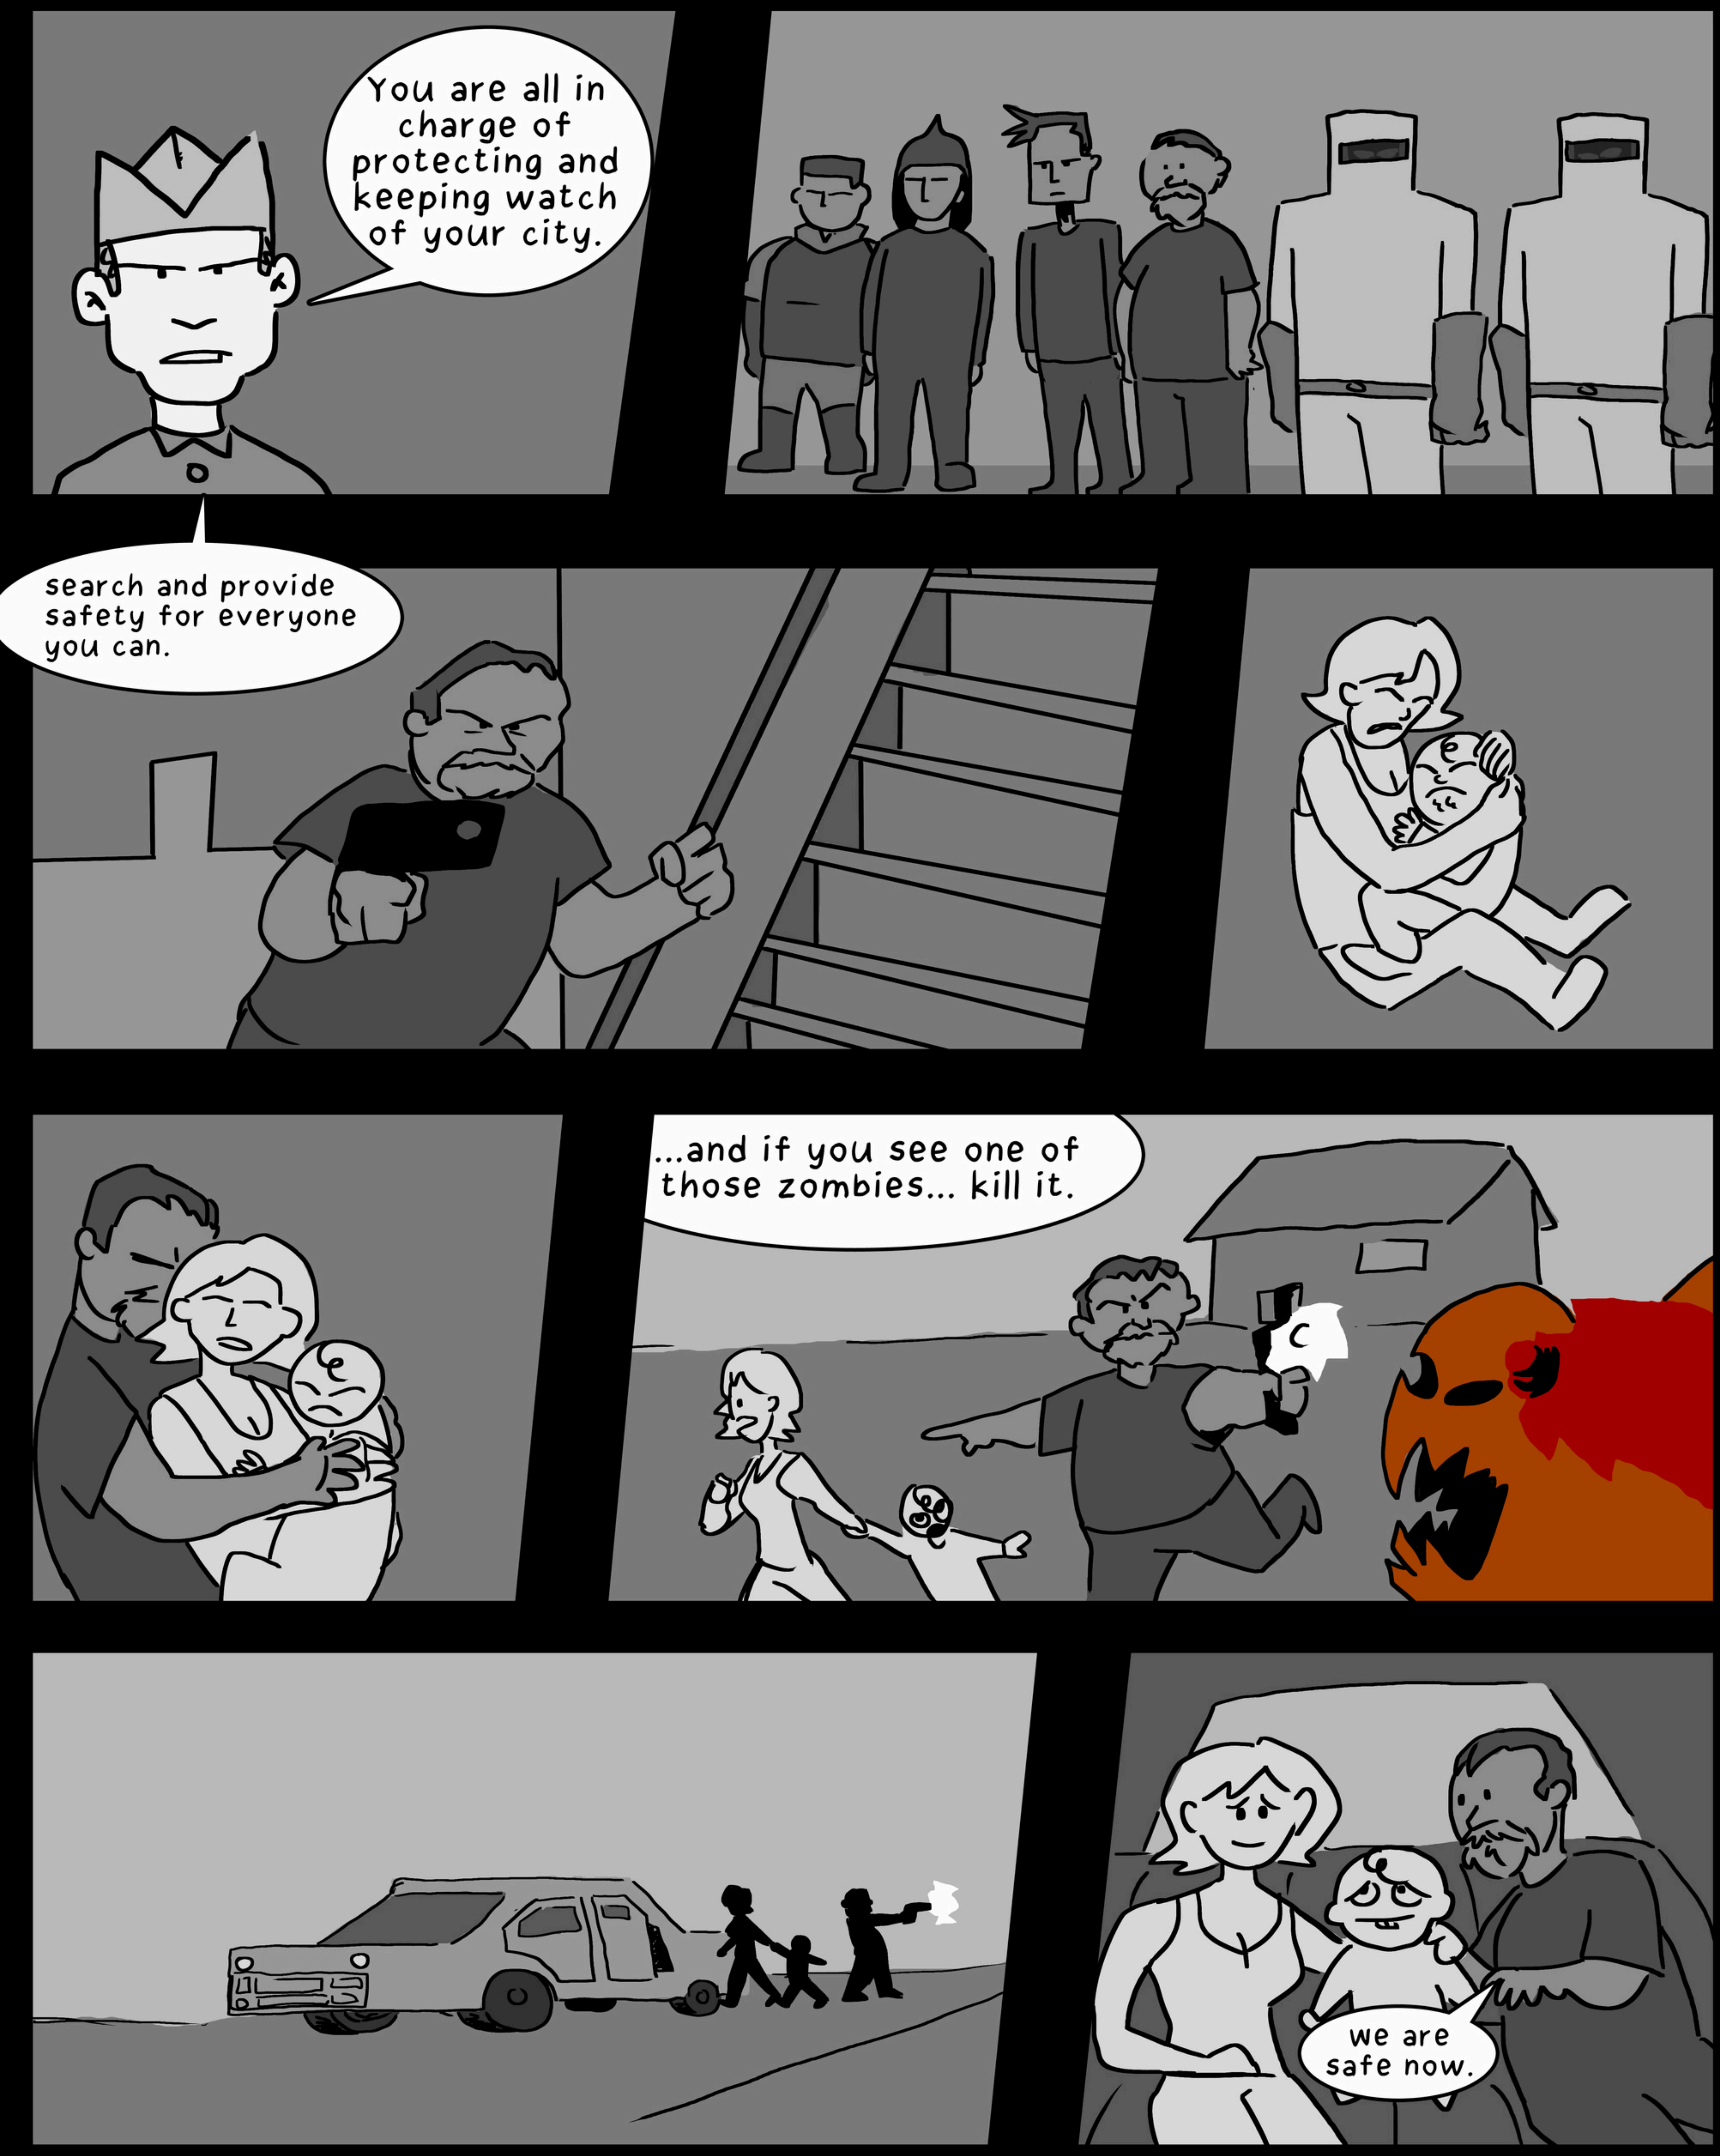
...and it appears they might have there own means of reproduction.



You are all in charge of protecting and keeping watch of your city.
search and provide safety for everyone you can.
...and if you see one of those zombies... kill it.
we are safe now.

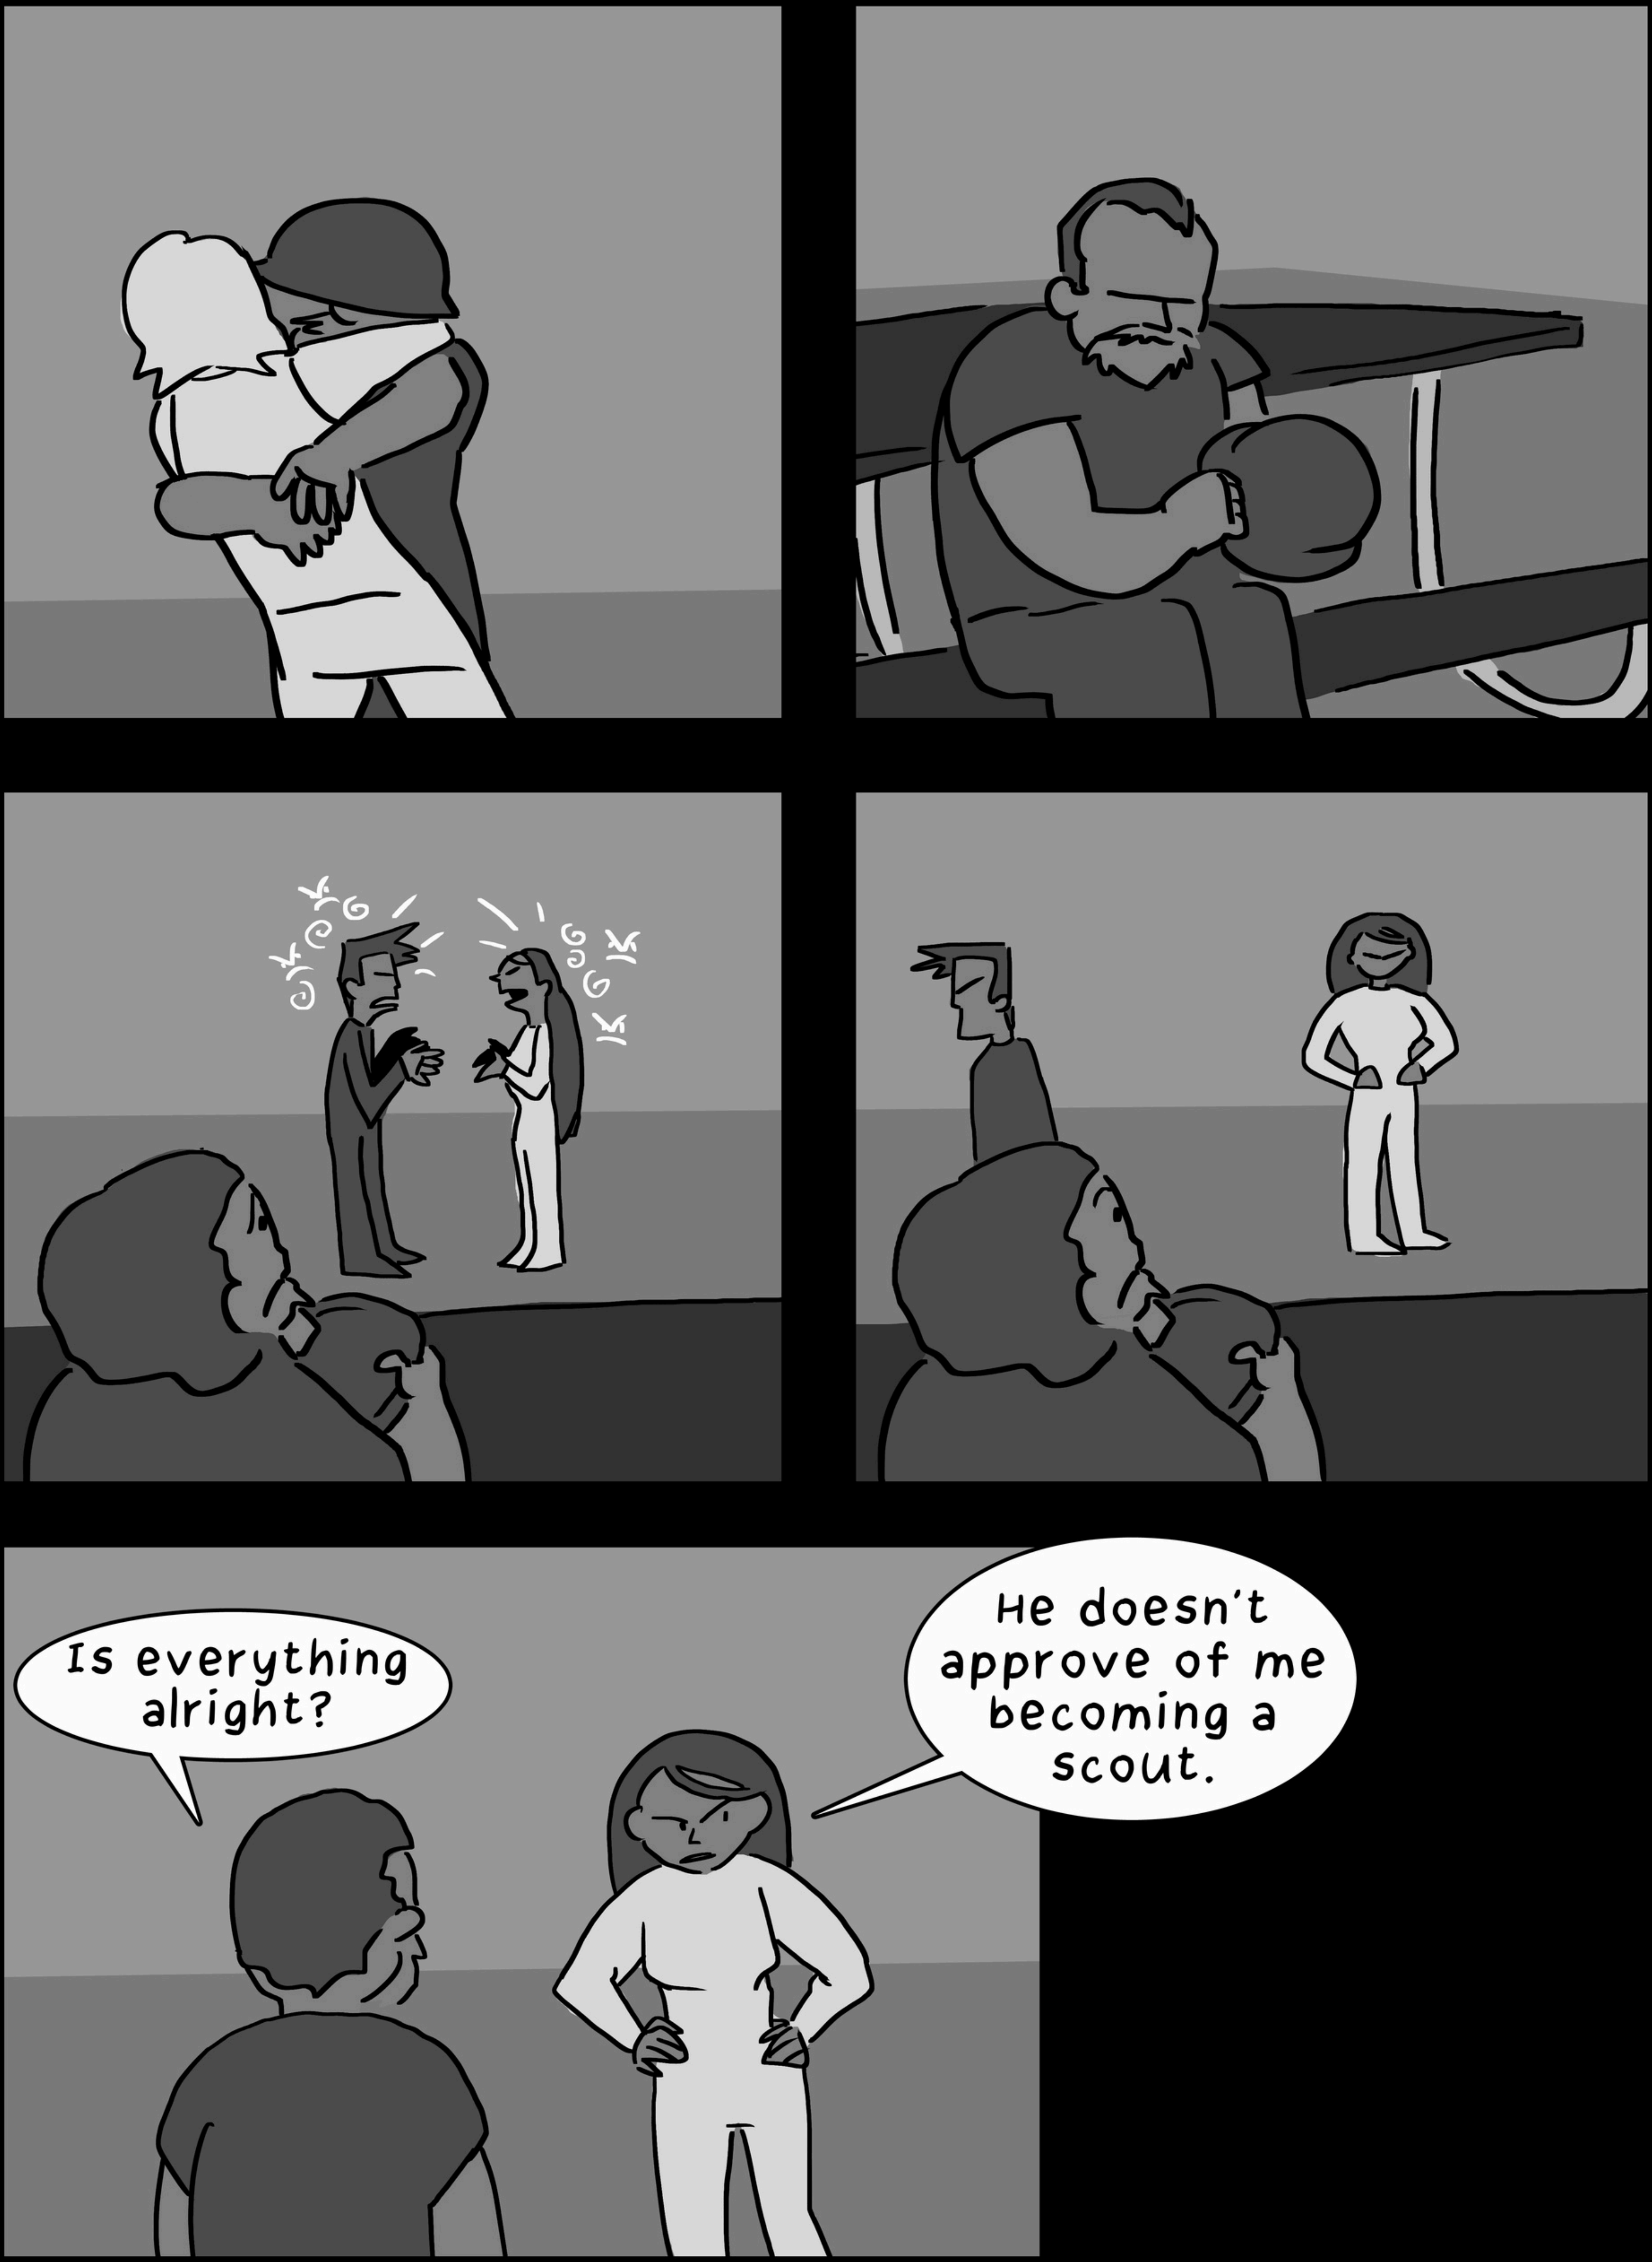
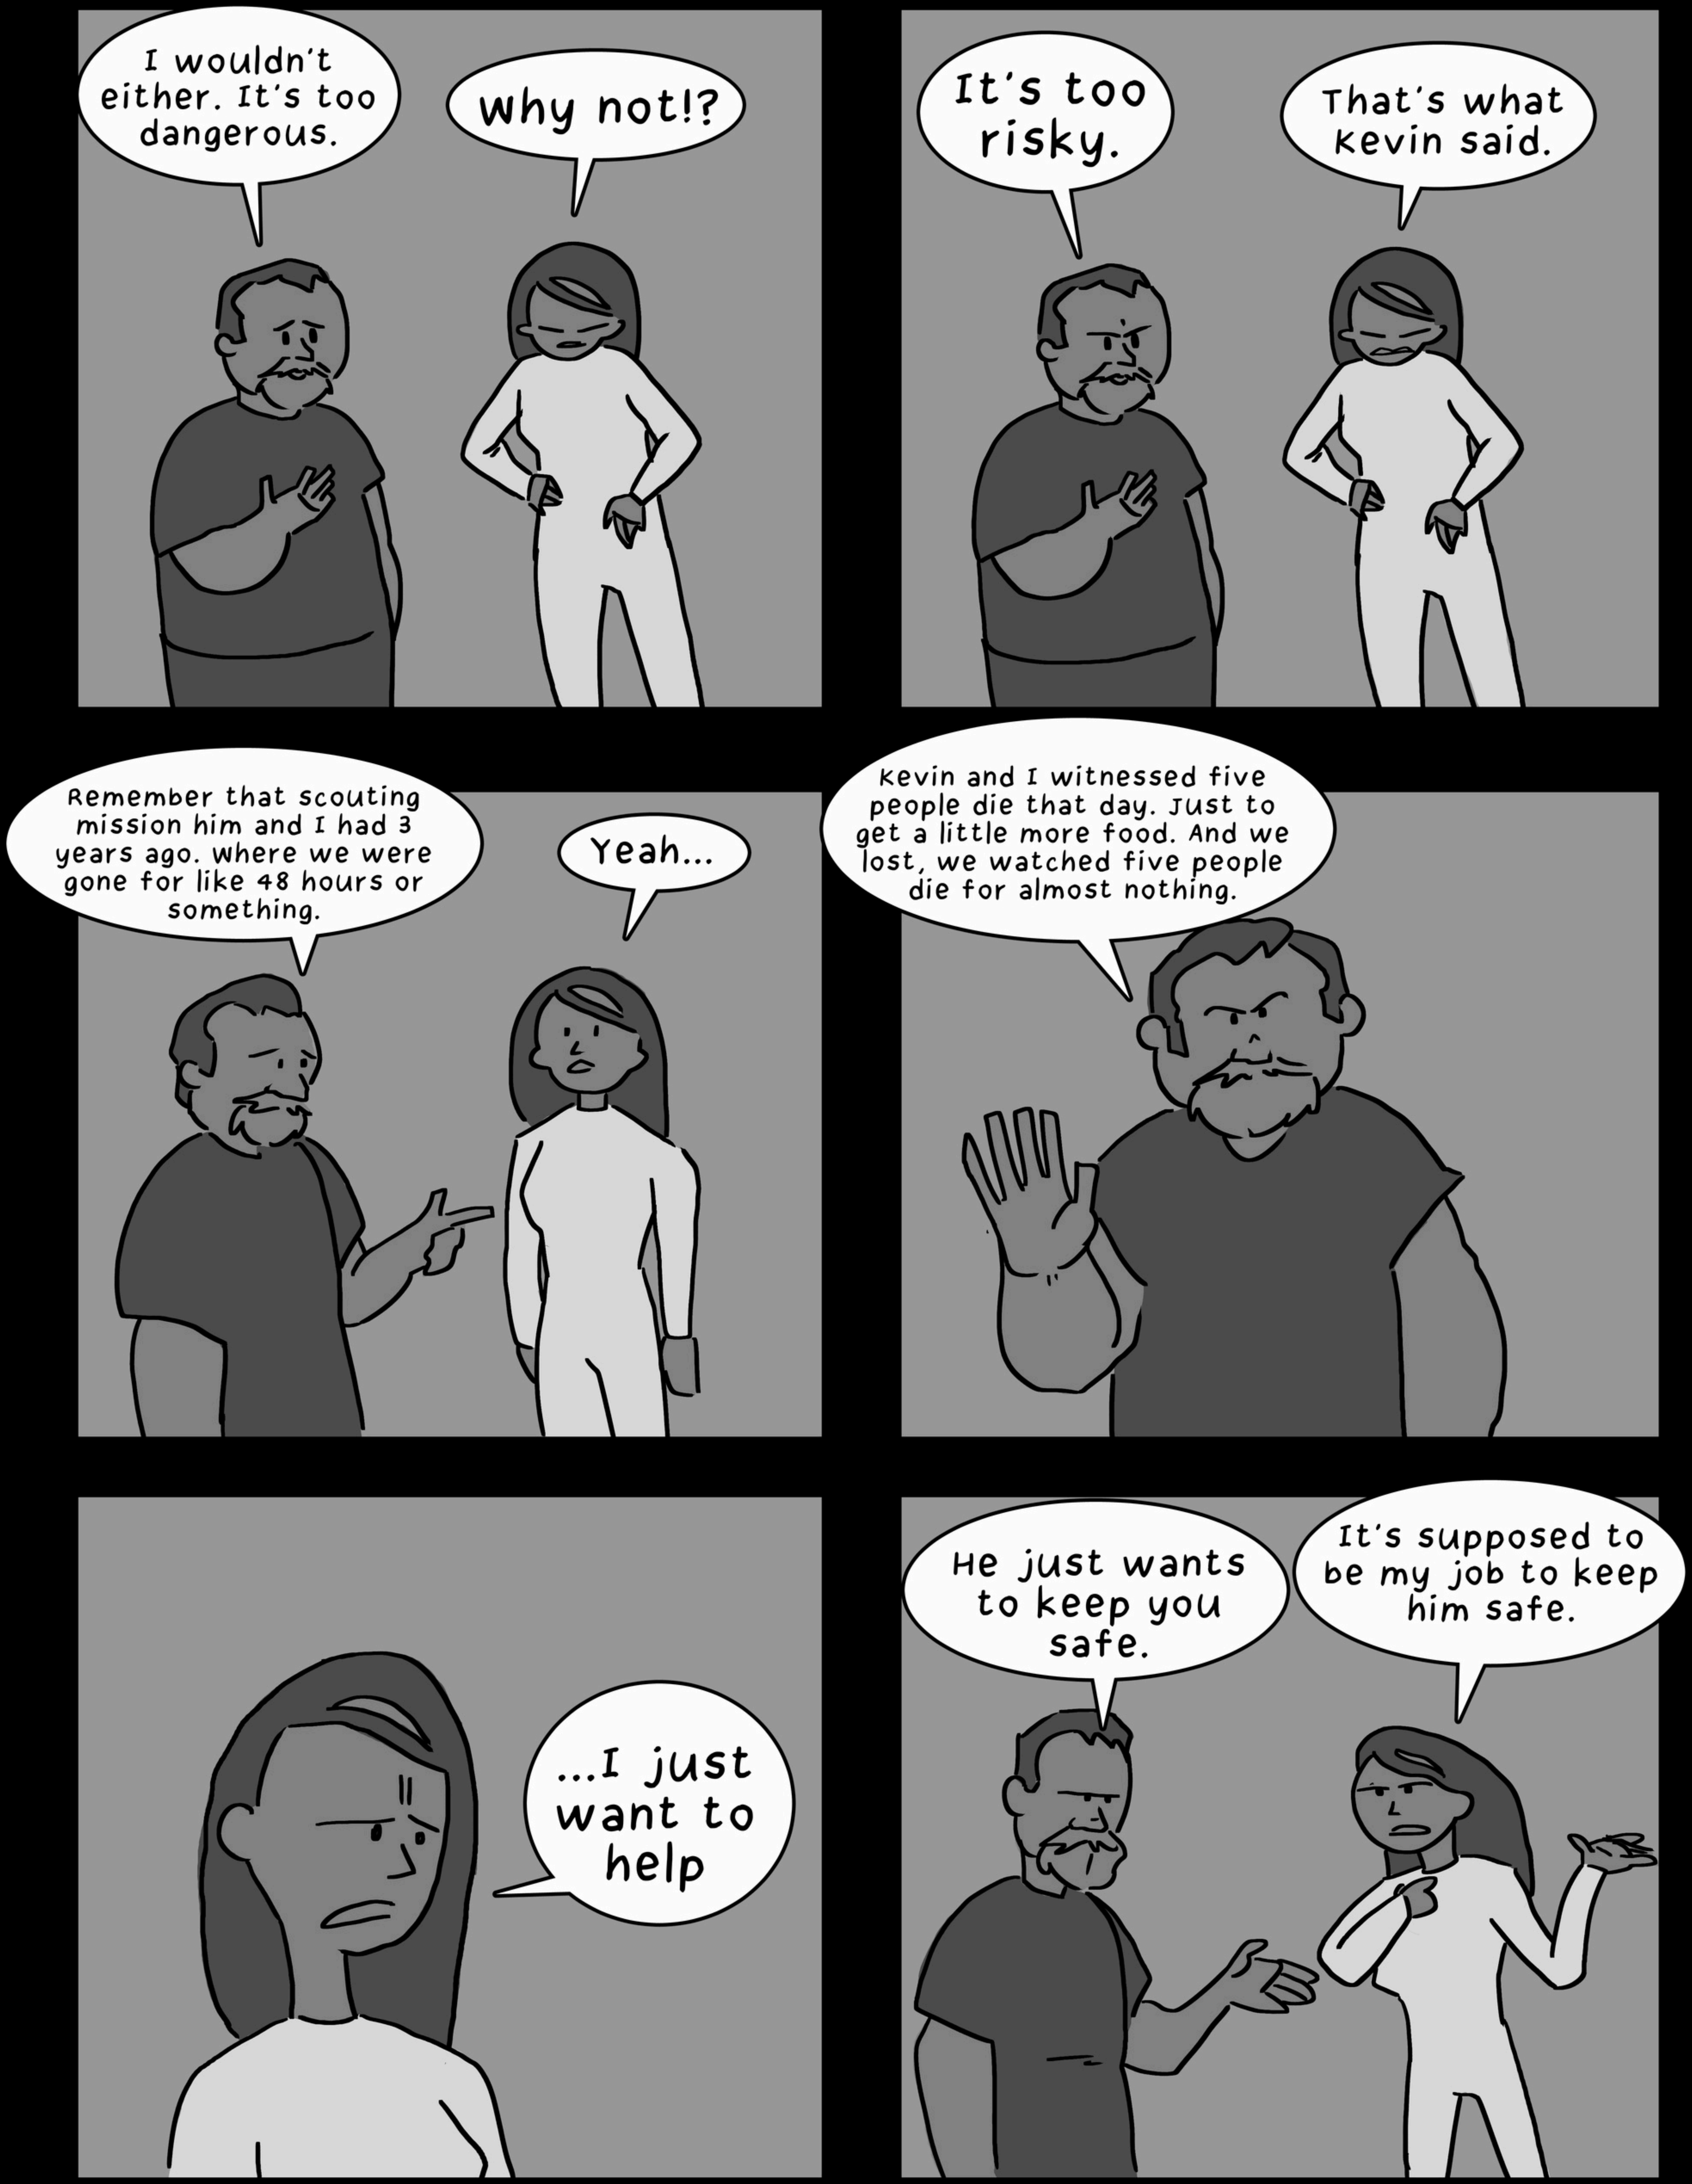
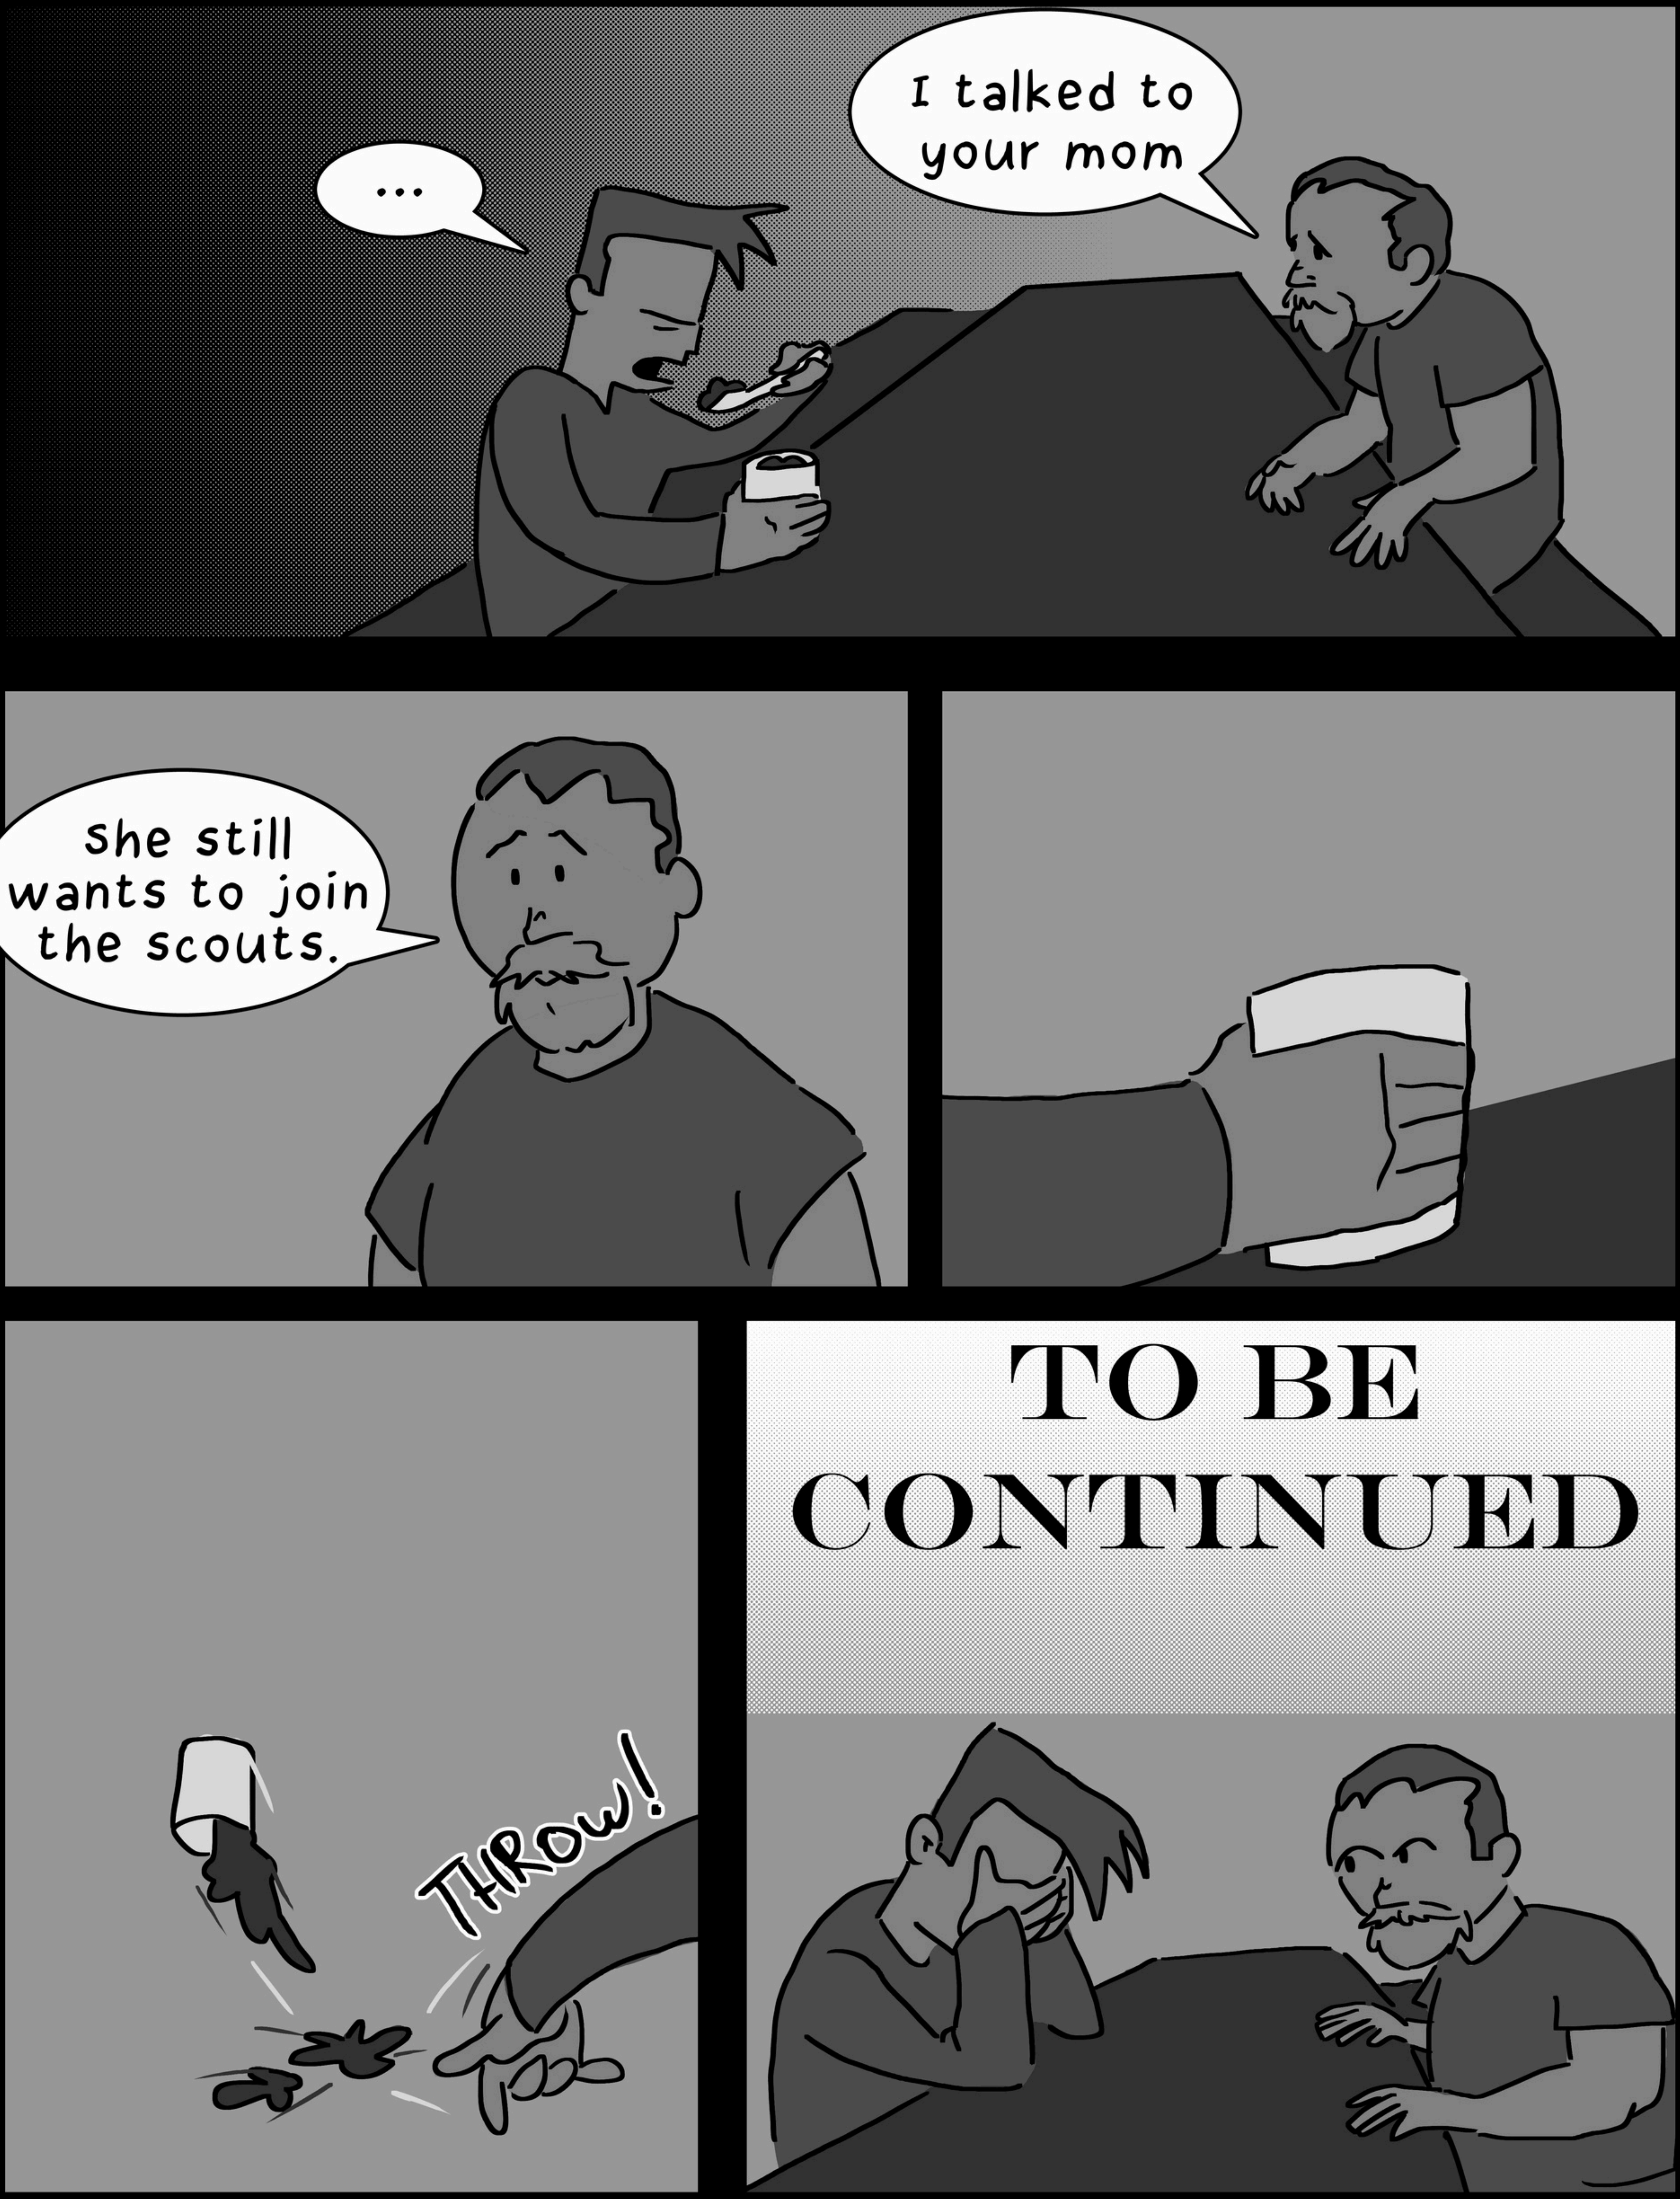
What happened?
We didn't get any supplies. And my partner didn't make it.



Is everything alright?
He doesn't approve of me becoming a scout.



I wouldn't either. It's too dangerous.
Why not!?
It's too risky.
That's what Kevin said.
Remember that scouting mission him and I had 3 years ago. Where we were gone for like 48 hours or something.
Yeah...
Kevin and I witnessed five people die that day. Just to get a little more food. And we lost, we watched five people die for almost nothing.
...I just want to help
He just wants to keep you safe.
It's supposed to be my job to keep him safe.



...
I talked to your mom
She still wants to join the scouts.
THROW!

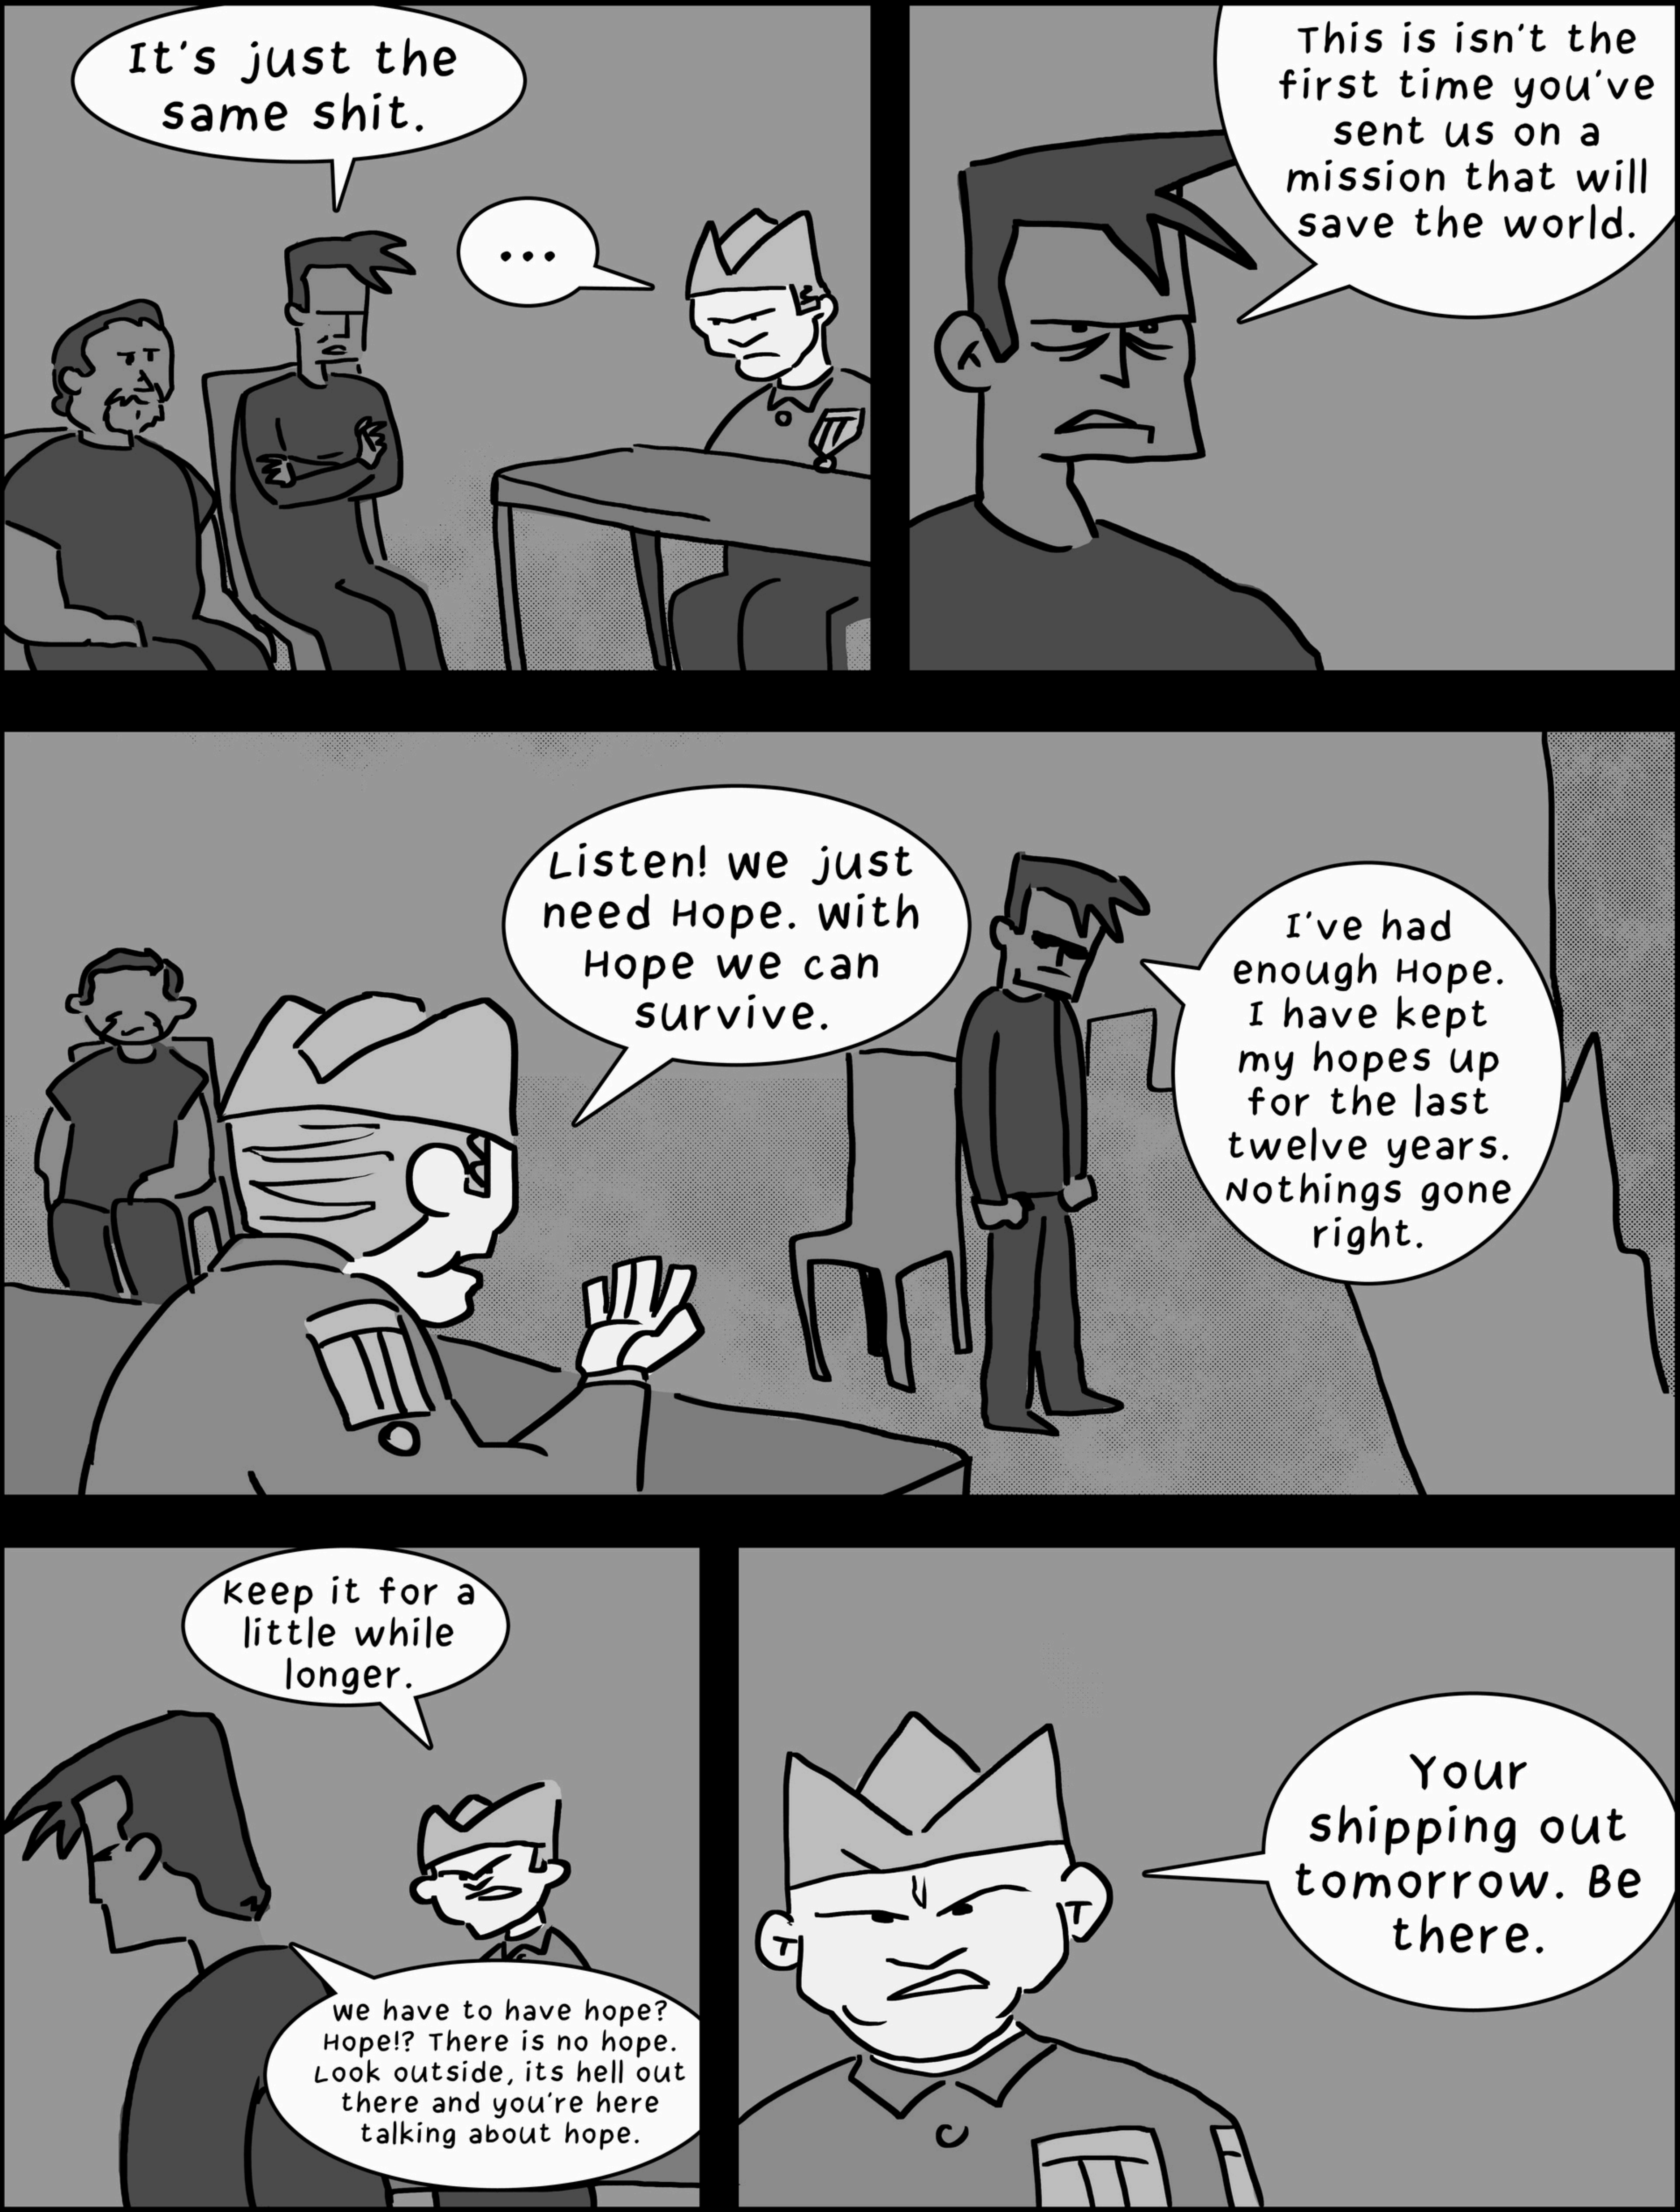
Your two minutes late, Kevin
Just cut to the damn chase.
Alright! Paul, Kevin, you two have another mission. It's in Russia.
RUSSIA! you got to be kidding me!
Please sit down KEVIN.
Shut up and sit down. Let me explain. You two are going to escort a Doctor named Hope, bring him to our base so he can team up with our doctors and find a cure. You'll be shipped out in a few days. If this mission is a success, it will be major victory. Doctor Hope could fix this all for us and the past twelve years can finally be worth it.



It's just the same shit.
This is isn't the first time you've sent us on a mission that will save the world.
Listen! we just need Hope. with Hope we can survive.
I've had enough Hope. I have kept my hopes up for the last twelve years. Nothings gone right.
Keep it for a little while longer.
we have to have hope? Hope!? There is no hope. Look outside, its hell out there and you're here talking about hope.
Your shipping out tomorrow. Be there.

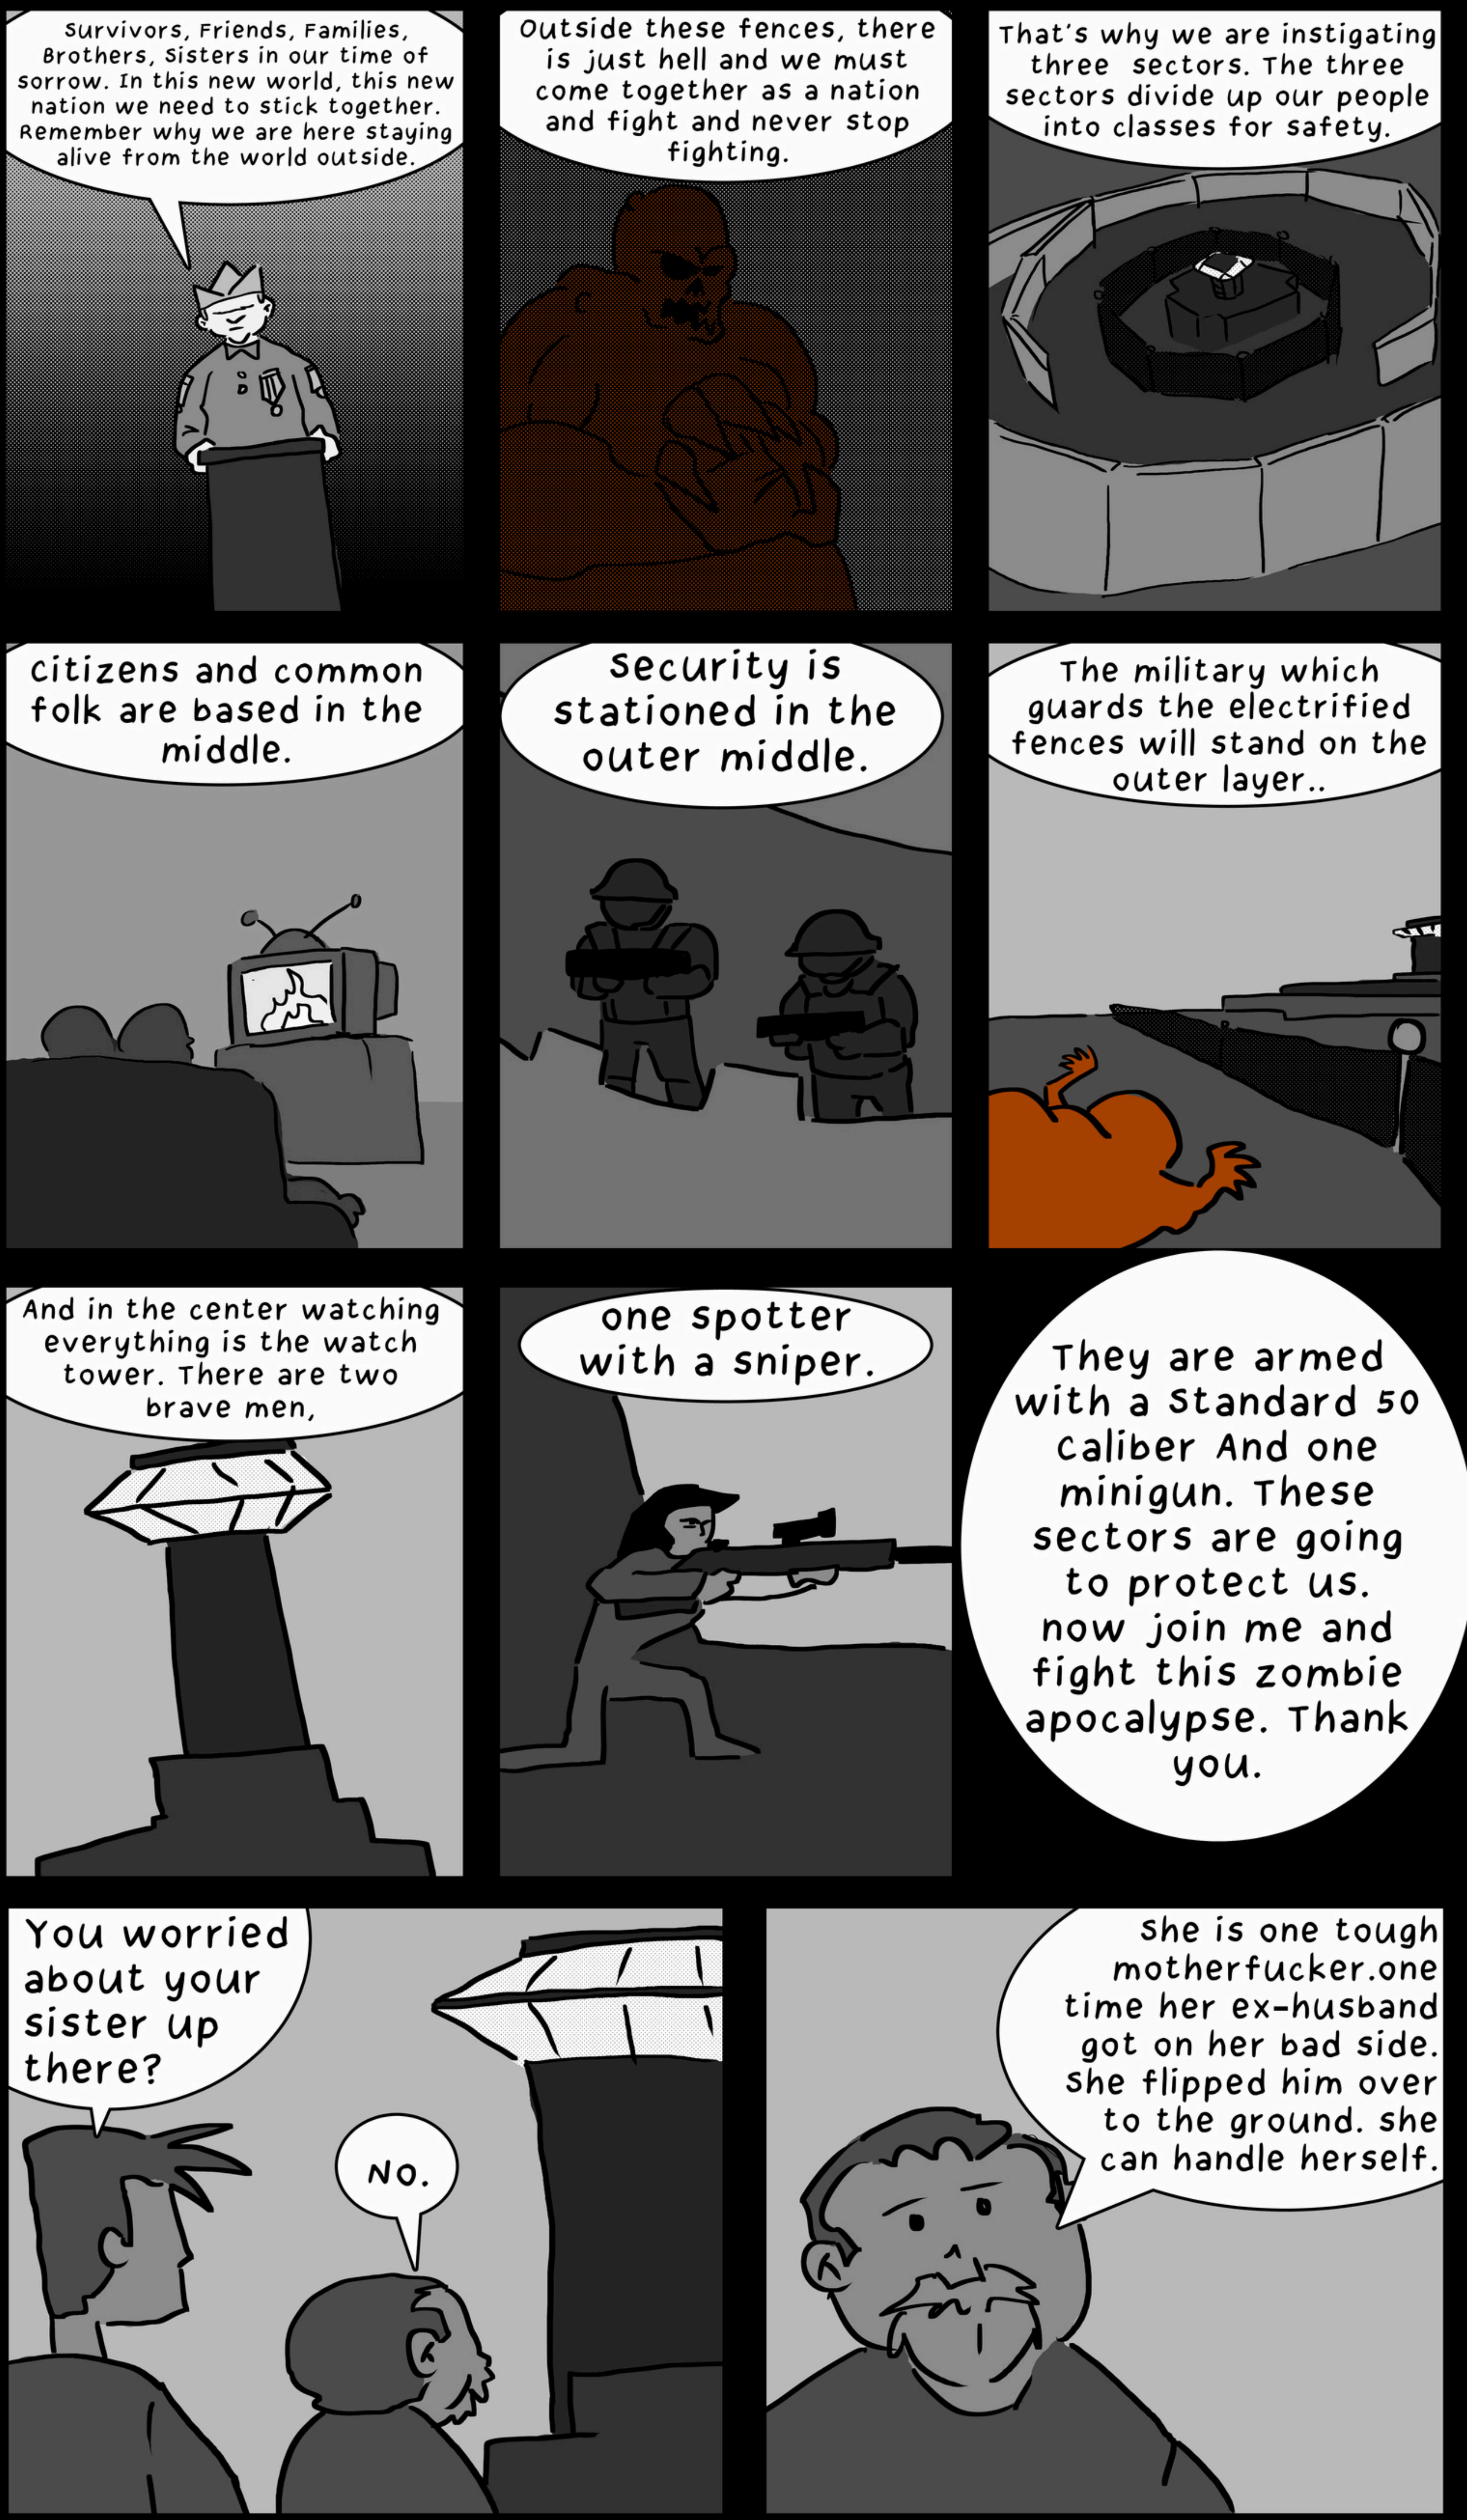
Survivors...



Survivors, Friends, Families, Brothers, sisters in our time of sorrow. In this new world, this new nation we need to stick together. Remember why we are here staying alive from the world outside.
Outside these fences, there is just hell and we must come together as a nation and fight and never stop fighting.
That's why we are instigating three sectors. The three sectors divide up our people into classes for safety.
citizens and common folk are based in the middle.
security is stationed in the outer middle.
The military which guards the electrified fences will stand on the outer layer..
And in the center watching everything is the watch tower. There are two brave men, one spotter with a sniper.
They are armed with a Standard 50 caliber And one minigun. These sectors are going to protect us. now join me and fight this zombie apocalypse. Thank you.
You worried about your sister up there?
No.
She is one tough motherfucker.one time her ex-husband got on her bad side. she flipped him over to the ground. she can handle herself.

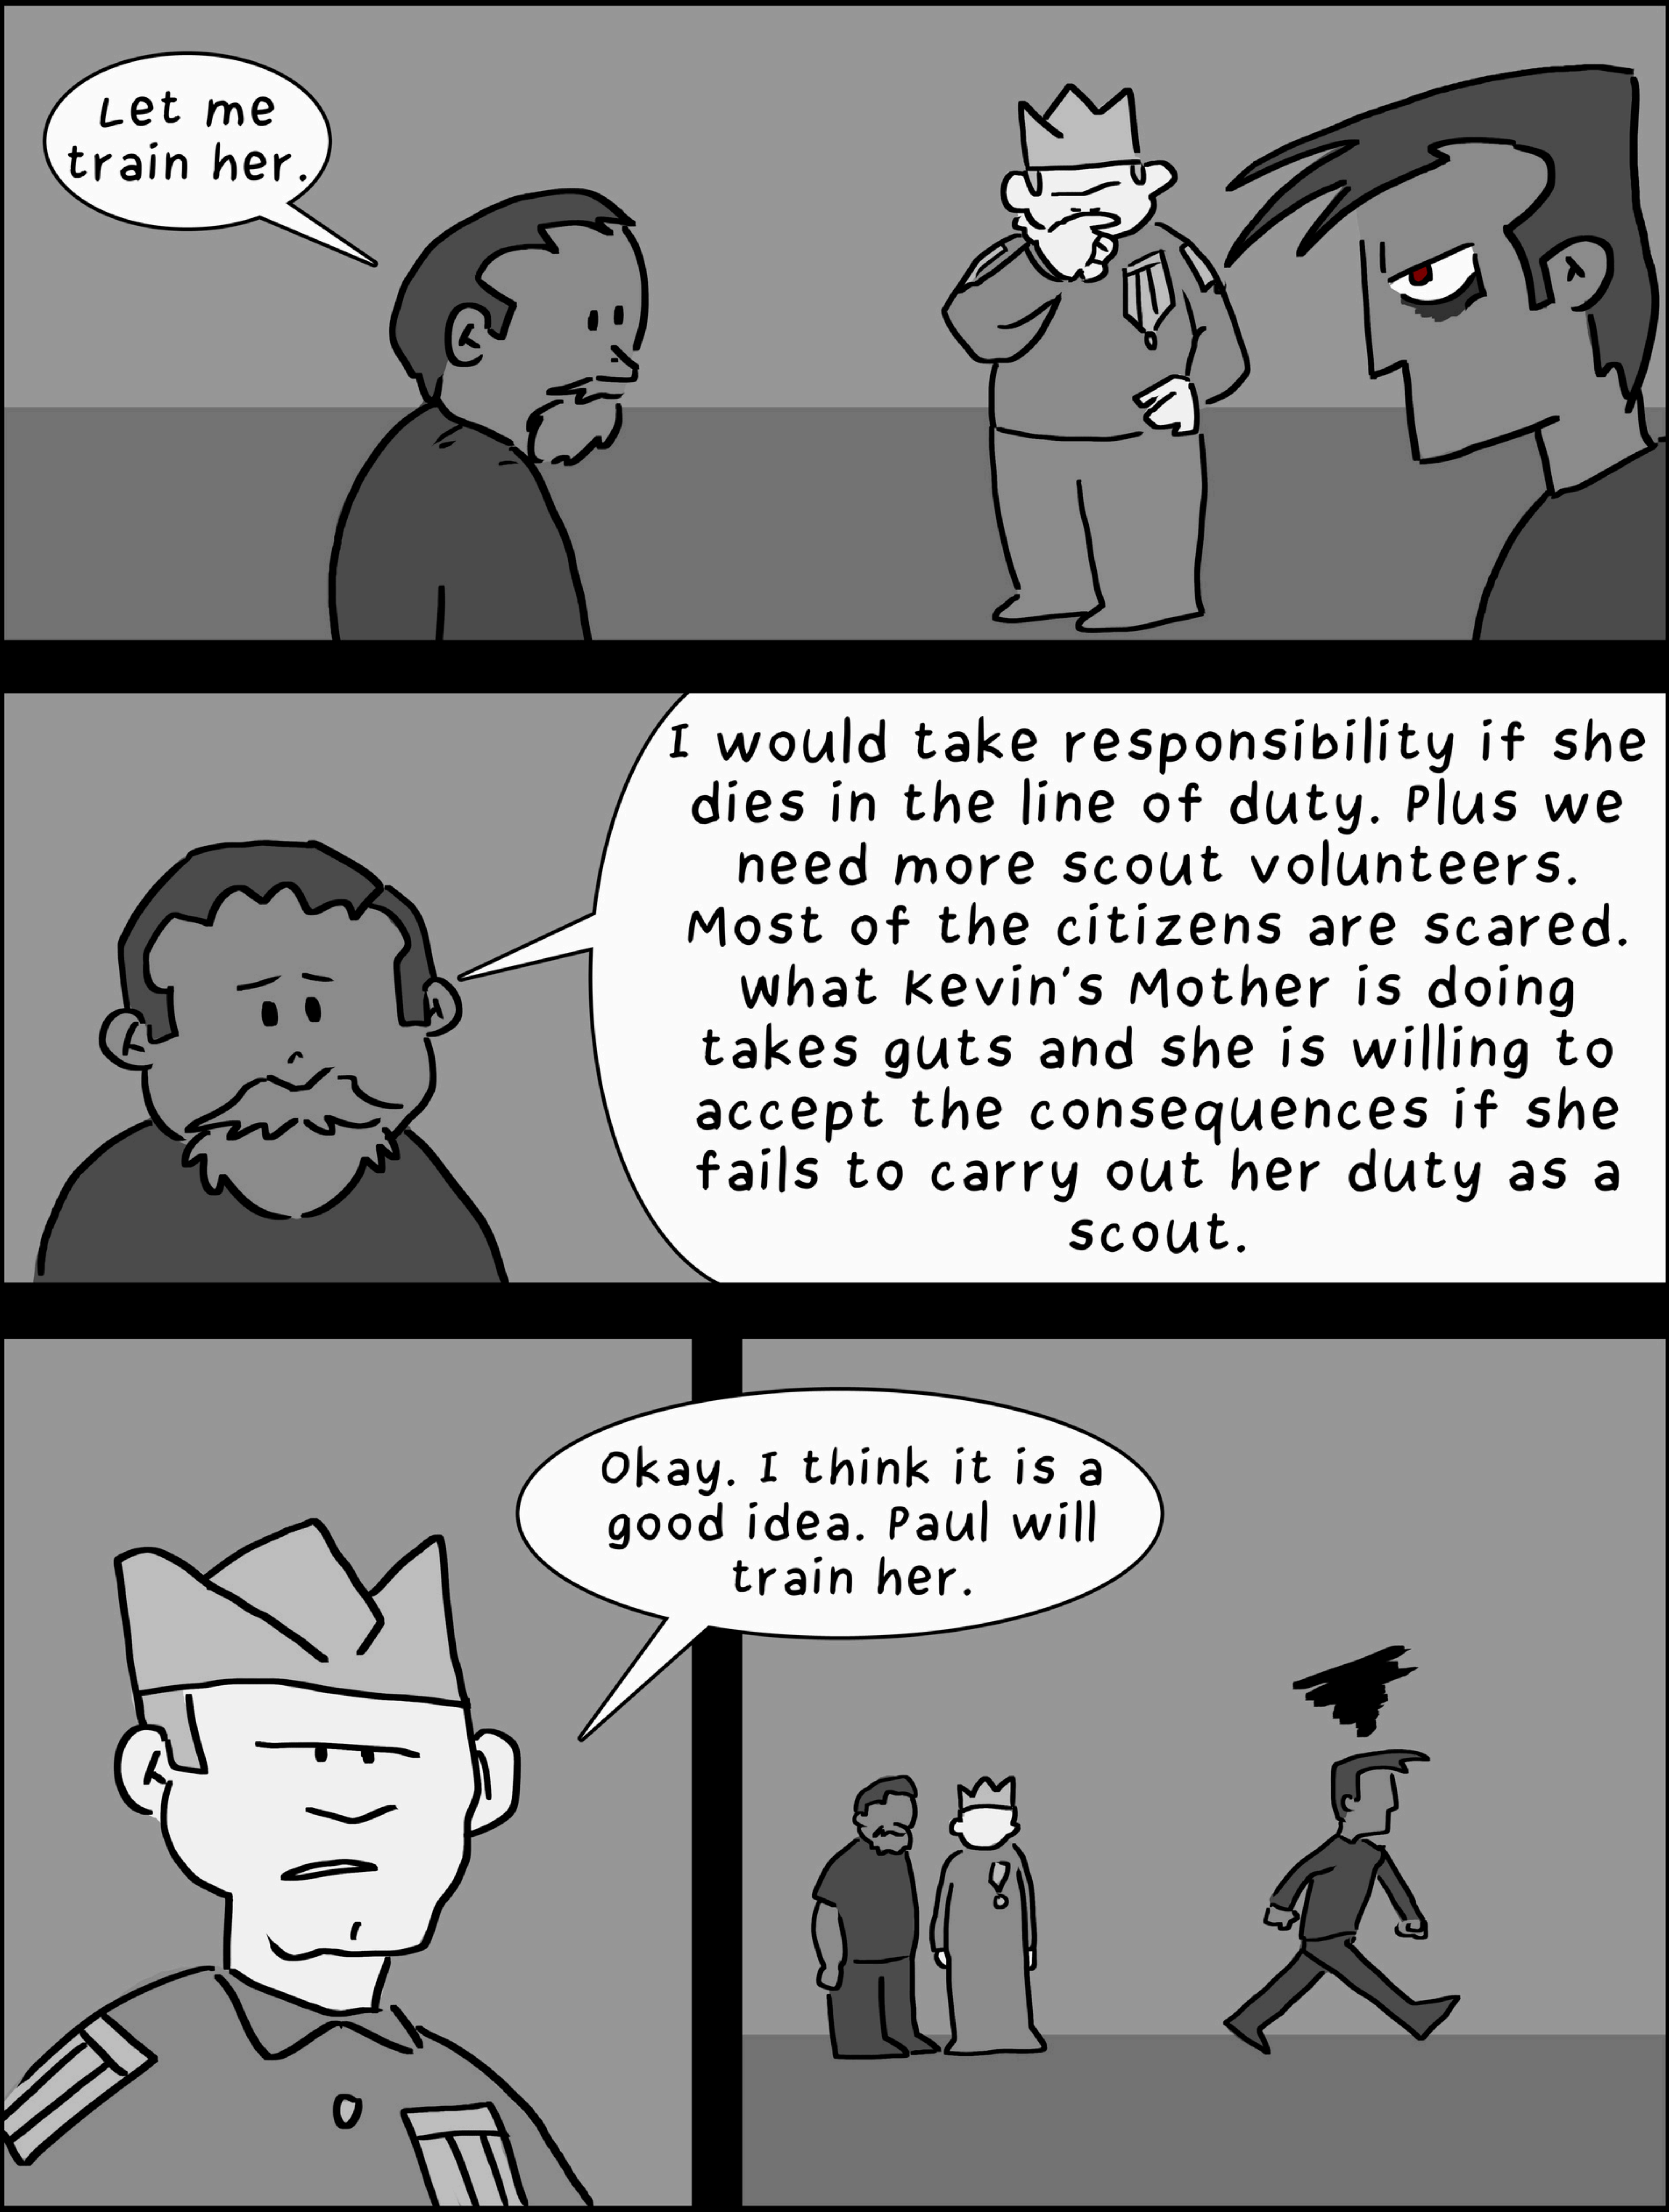
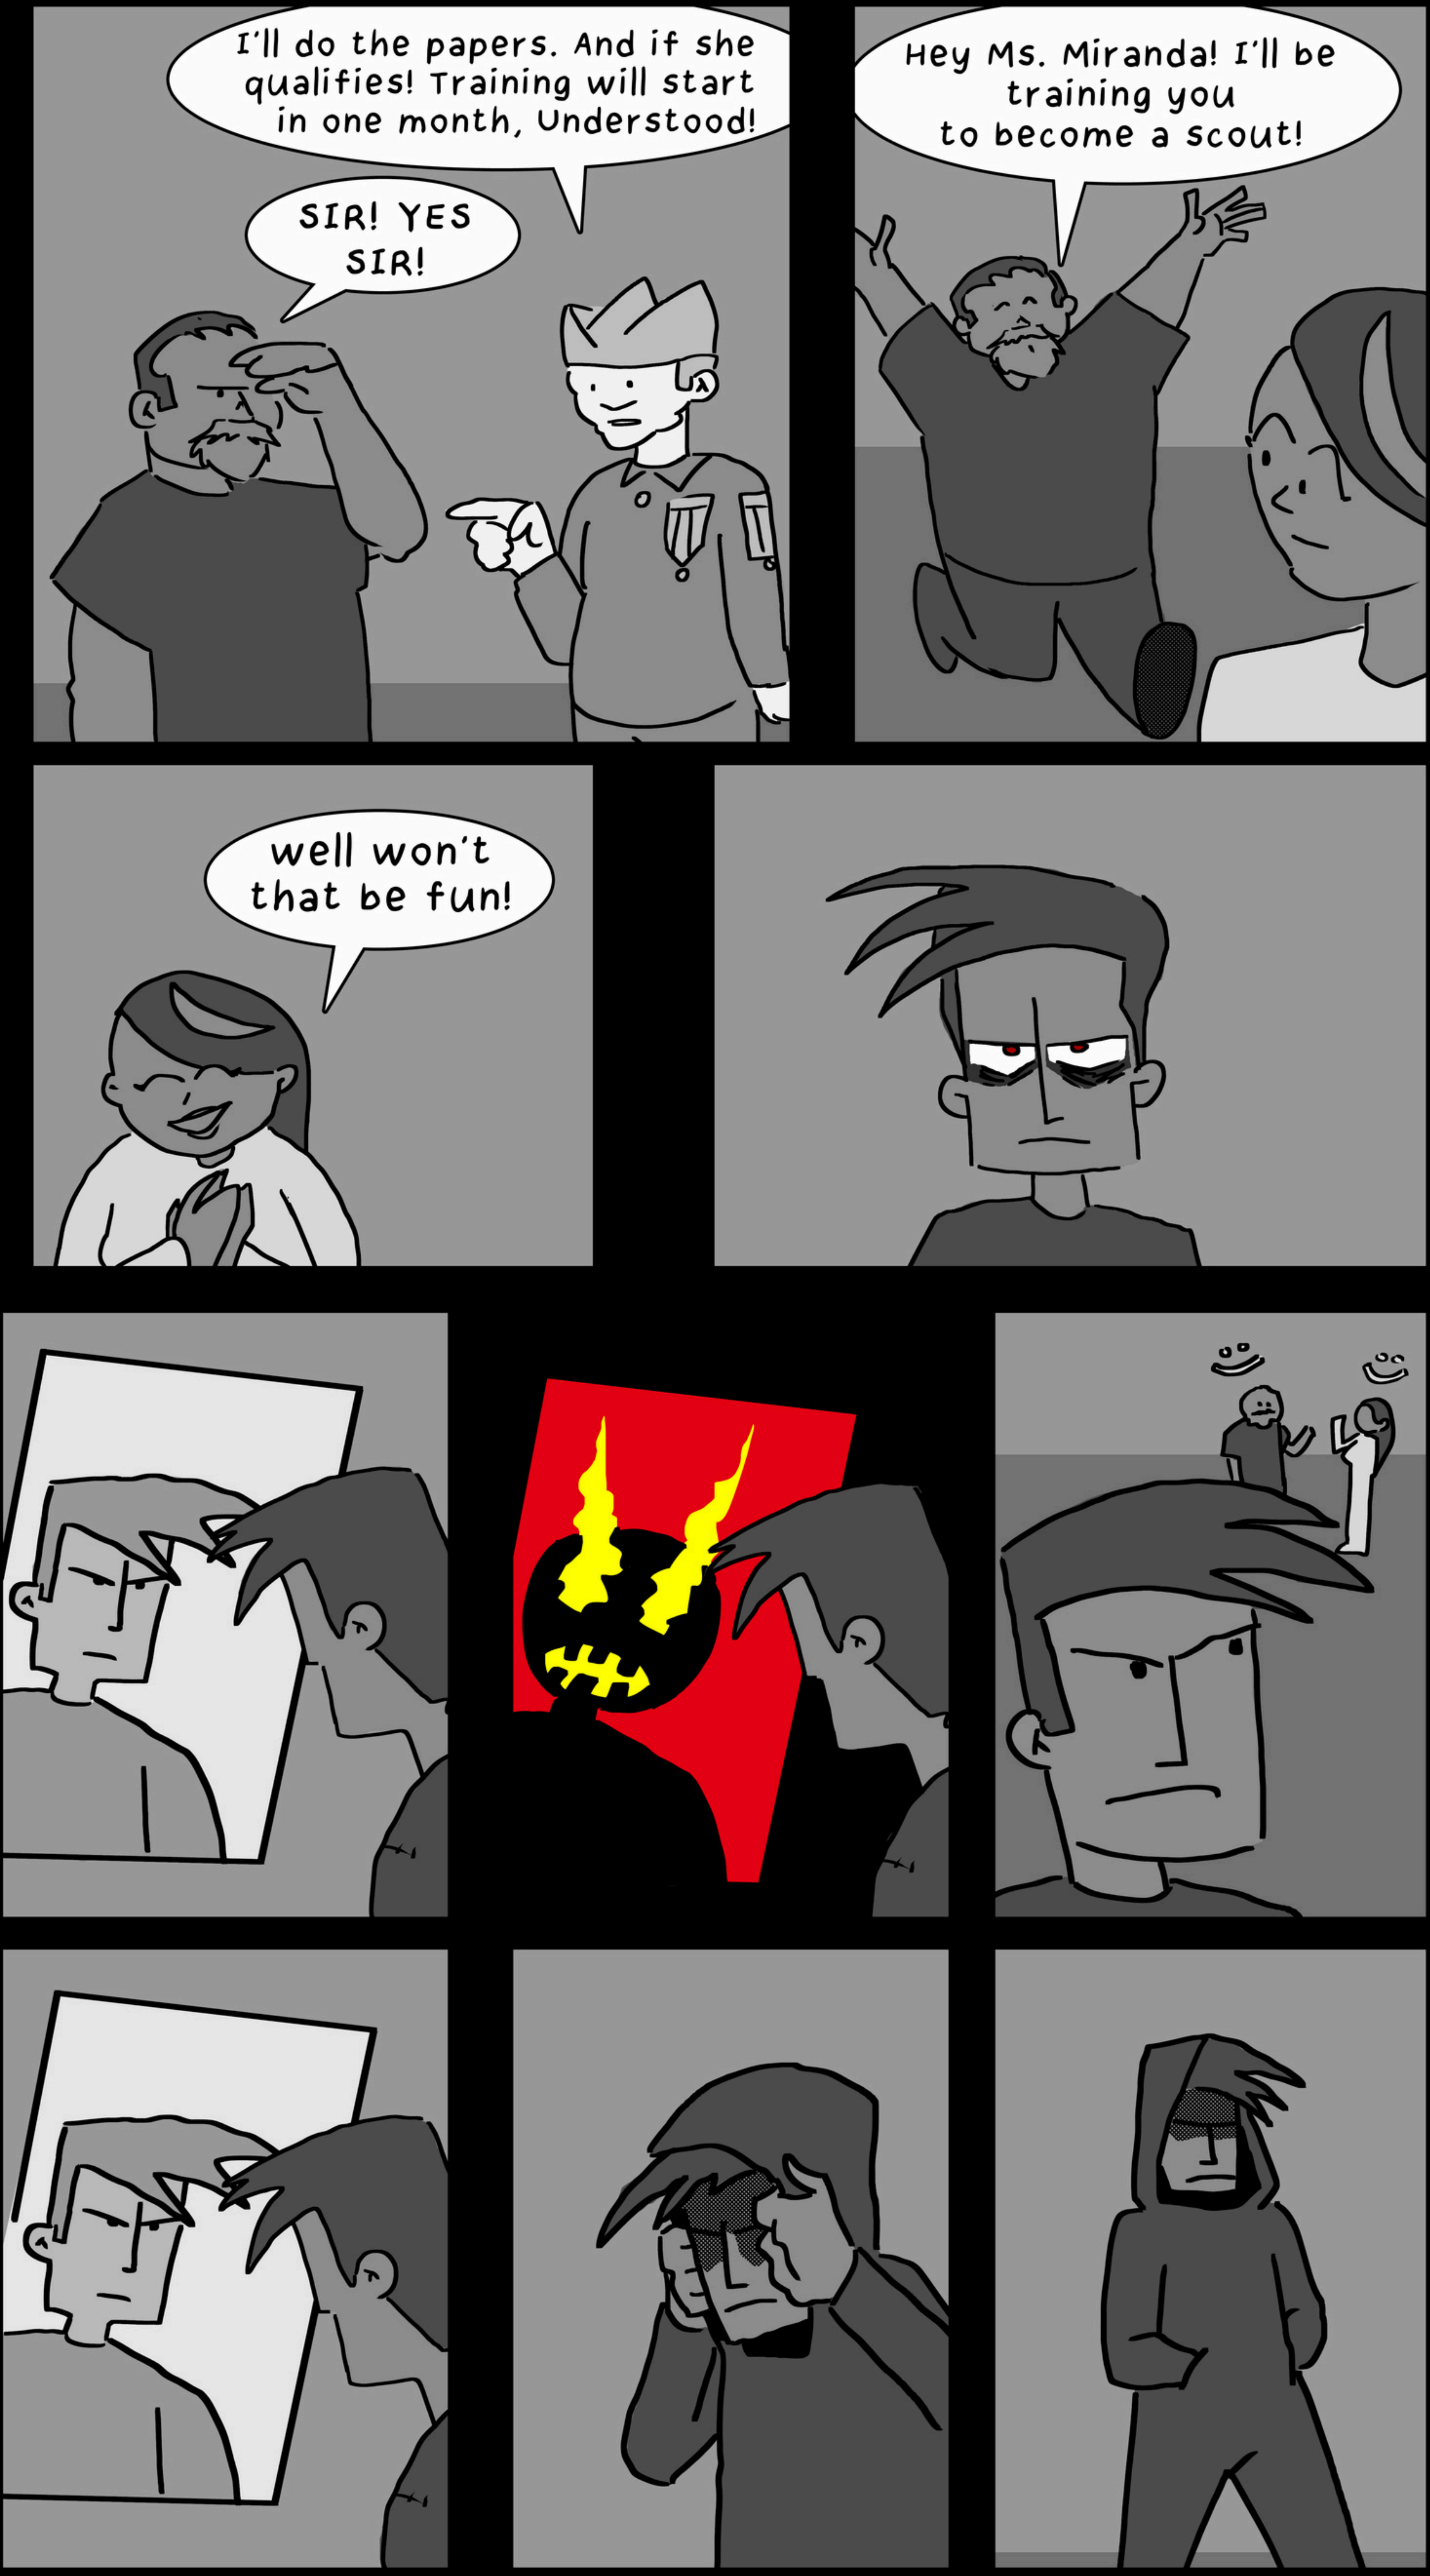
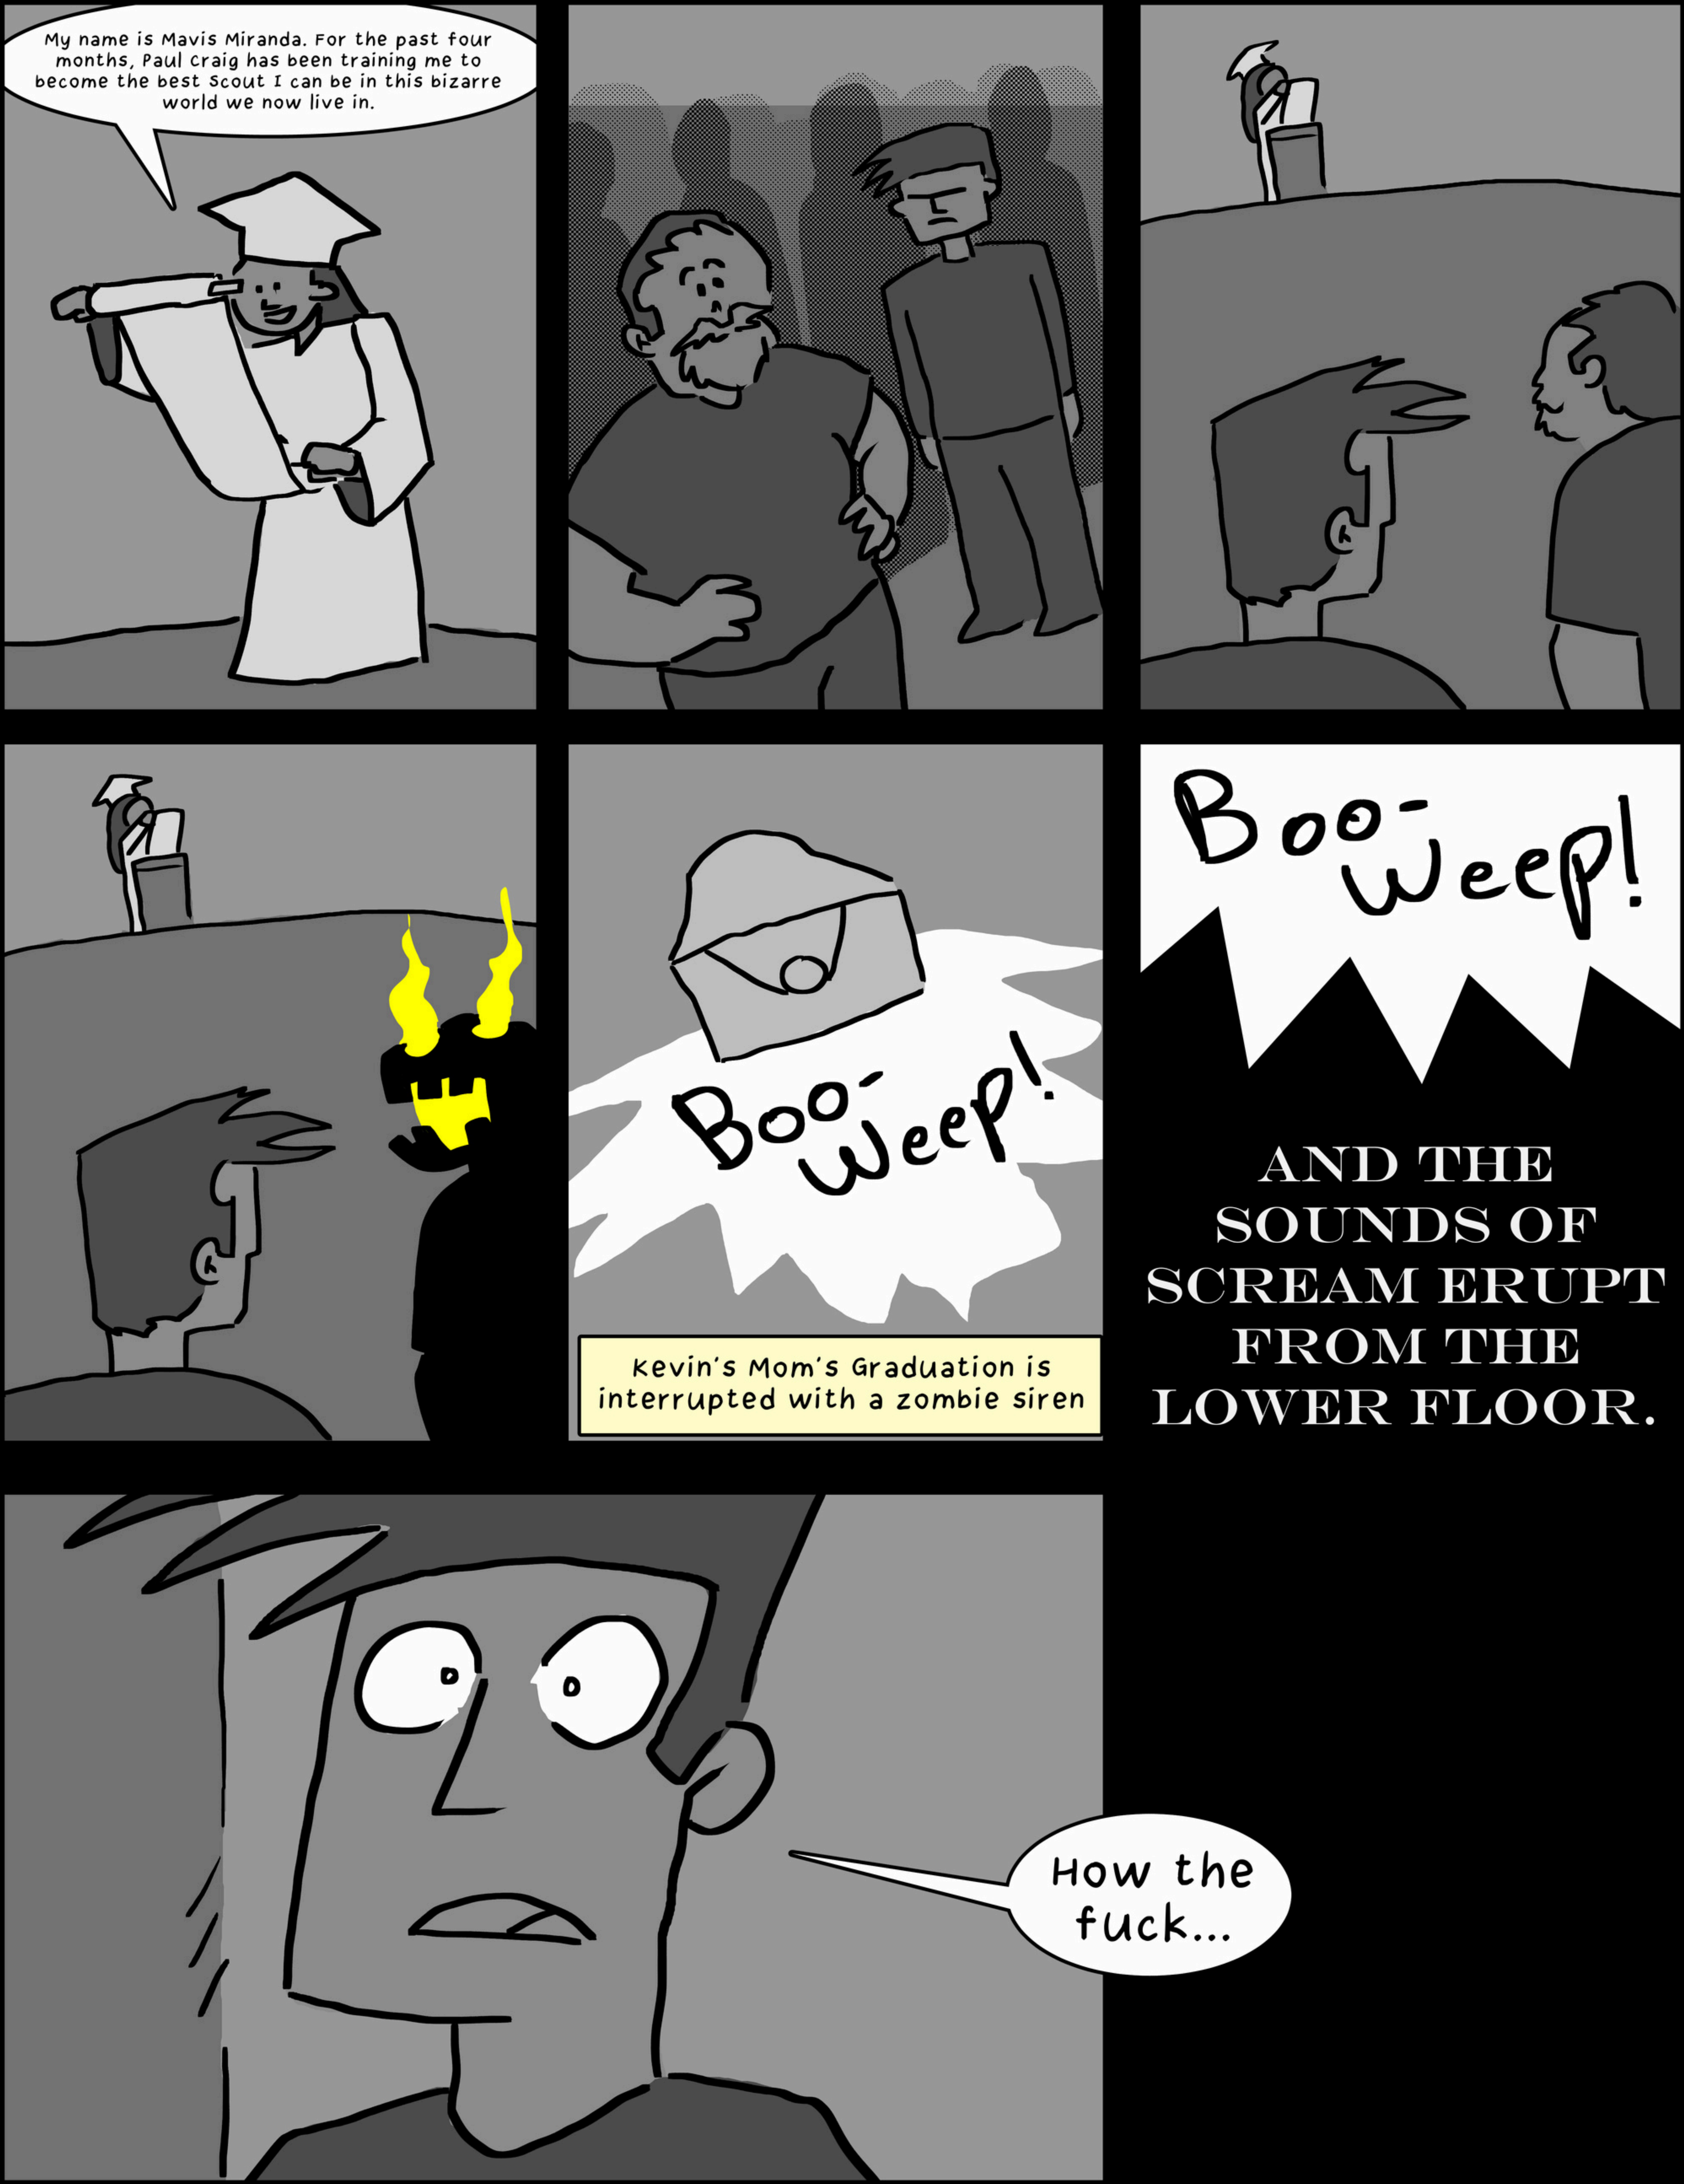
Your mother will make a fine scout.
It's too dangerous.
She's an independent woman.
Name one person you can trust to train her.
It will be fine, I promise.



Let me train her.
I would take responsibility if she dies in the line of duty. Plus we need more scout volunteers. Most of the citizens are scared. What Kevin's Mother is doing takes guts and she is willing to accept the consequences if she fails to carry out her duty as a scout.
Okay. I think it is a good idea. Paul will train her.



I'll do the papers. And if she qualifies! Training will start in one month, Understood!
SIR! YES SIR!
Hey Ms. Miranda! I'll be training you to become a scout!
well won't that be fun!



My name is Mavis Miranda. For the past four months, Paul craig has been training me to become the best Scout I can be in this bizarre world we now live in.
Boo-Weep!
Kevin's Mom's Graduation is interrupted with a zombie siren

Ryan, you don't understand. we had no other choice.
NO CHOICE! NO CHOICE! THERE'S ALWAYS A CHOICE! YOU JUST DON'T KNOW WHAT HAPPENED THERE. THERE WAS NO CHOICE. IT WAS JUST LIFE AND DEATH.
At least your still alive.
I'd rather be dead.
